Players rotate in a clockwise direction and serve when they are in the right back position. The libero (wearing a different color jersey) may take the place of any of the three back row players and does not count as a team substitution.

The diagram to the left details NCAA women's volleyball rotations as well as a breakdown of the six positions on the court. Additional information regarding terminology and scoring is also available.

TERMINOLOGY AND SCORING:

As of 2008, the NCAA coaches have decided to change the terminology "game" to "set" - so matches consist of the best three-of-five sets. In addition, instead of rally scoring to 30 points in the first four sets, sets are presently played to 25. The fifth set will be rally scoring to 15 points. Both changes were made to mirror international volleyball.

POSITION BREAKDOWN:

MH: Middle hitter, generally attacks from middle front
Opp.: Opposite or right side hitter, generally attacks from the right front
DS: Defensive Specialist, a substitution in the back row for serving, passing and defensive purposes

S: The setter generally handles the second contact to distribute the ball to the hitters, may only attack and block when in the front row
L: Libero, a back row player concentrated on passing and defense who can serve, but may not attack the ball above the height of the net; wears a different colored jersey to help distinguish, "on-the-fly" entry into the game.

Fresh off their second consecutive and seventh NCAA national championship in program history, the Nittany Lions are set to open the 40th season of women's volleyball at Penn State.

With six titles in the last eight years, it's hard to imagine that Penn State women's volleyball isn't primed for another successful season heading into 2015.

This year, the Nittany Lions enter the season with some sizable question marks, tasked with replacing a core group of senior leadership. First there's three-time All-American and 2014 AVCA Division I National Player of the Year Micha Hancock, who set the Nittany Lions to both championship crowns in 2013-14, while also impressing from the endline with her incredible serve. Then there's three-year starting libero Dominique Gonzalez, and defensive specialist Lacey Fuller who commanded the backrow. Lastly, there's two-time All-American Nia Grant, who frequently led the nation in hitting efficiency throughout the 2014 season.

"That's an awful big gap," Hall of Fame head coach Russ Rose said. But to Rose, who's entering his 37th season at the helm of the program, "There are gaps every year and there are also opportunities for people to step up and try and fill those gaps."

Gaps and question marks are all part of challenge for the Nittany Lions, who just one year ago entered the 2014 season looking to fill the void left by a trio of graduating seniors Katie Slay, Ariel Scott and Deja McClendon - who combined for 10 All-America awards during their four-year careers in the Blue and White.

For Rose, it's evident that every year brings a new team. But with a new team, comes the yearly challenge for the winningest coach of all time and his staff to find just the right combination that brings forth the best chance for success.

"With a new team, you have to find new ways to play the game," Rose said. "There are no guarantees that you're going to win just because you have won before."

Despite the departures, the Nittany Lions return plenty of potential when it comes to finding new ways to win.

This year's senior group features 2014 NCAA Championship MVP, Megan Courtney and AVCA All-American Aiyana Whitney, as well as defensive specialists Kendall Pierce and Lara Caraway.

From the 2014 top-ranked freshman recruiting class, All-American and National Freshman of the Year Ali Frantti and Big Ten Freshman of the Year Halleigh Washington highlight the large class that has already gained the taste of a national title.

Penn State's 2015 freshmen class features a little bit of everything, including setter Wilma Rivera, defensive specialist Keeton Holcomb, middle blocker Tori Gorrell and right side Jelena Novakovic.

More new additions include director of volleyball operations Jesse Tupac and volunteer assistant Shawn Sangrey.

Tupac comes to Penn State after serving as a graduate assistant at Iowa State. Sangrey, a former All-American and national champion at Ohio State, spent the last three years playing professionally overseas.

SETTER

FAMILIAR FACES

Perhaps one of Penn State's top priorities this season will be at the setting position. After redshirting her freshman season, Bryanna Weiskircher returns as the Nittany Lions' lone true setter.

As PrepVolleyball.com's No. 13 "Senior Aces" recruit last season, Weiskircher helped her club team to a pair of AAU Championships before coming to Penn State, while also earning 2013-14 Under Armour All-America honors.

"Bryanna possesses all the skills of the game and she has been setting for a long time," Rose said. "She's been the setter for a number of teams that have had great success in both high school and club."

LEGENDS IN THE MAKING

Joining Weiskircher at the setting position is freshman Wilma Rivera. A native of Carolina, Puerto Rico, Rivera was a four-year team captain and senior MVP at Saint Francis School. She helped her high school squad to the 2014 Puerto Rico Lopa El Nuevo Dia Championships, while also earning LACC All-State Best Setter and MVP honors in the same year.

"Wilma is a left-handed setter with good hands, quickness and a good disposition and composure for the game," Rose said.

Rivera also competed on the Puerto Rican Junior National Team, earning a bronze medal at the NORCECA U18 games in 2013 and silver medal at the Copa Pan Americana U18 games during the 2013 season. She was also named Best Setter at the Copa Pan Americana games.

"I thought Bryanna made good progress in the spring," Rose said. "I believe that Wilma has shown she is ready to play the game at the college level – so certainly there will be good competition at the setting position" he added.

MIDDLE HITTER

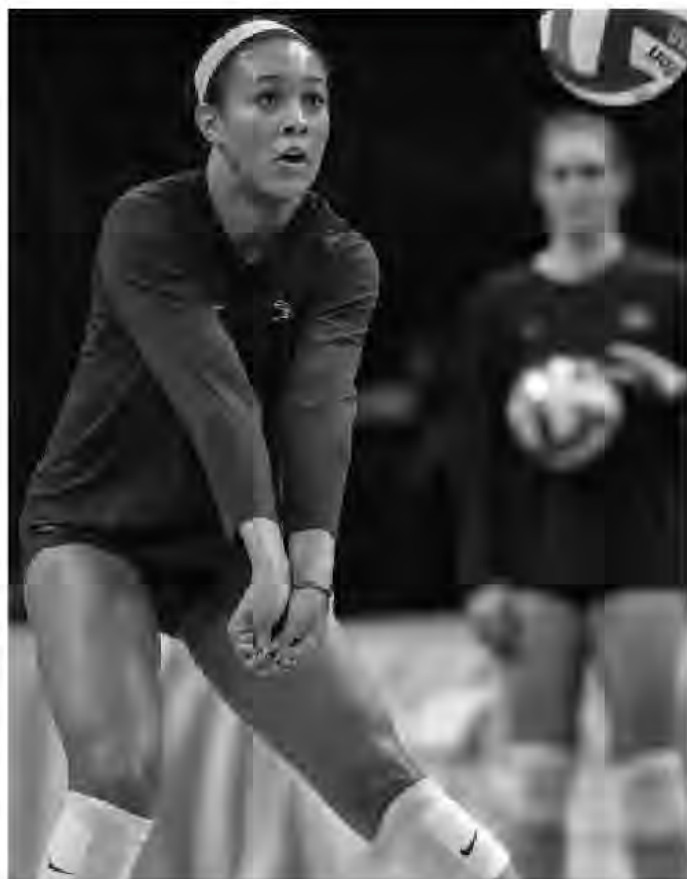

FAMILIAR FACES

Following the departure of two-time All-American Nia Grant, sophomore Haleigh Washington has emerged as one of the top returners in the group. With the ability to play multiple positions in the front row, redshirt senior All-American Aiyana Whitney could also be an option at the middle position. Despite seeing limited action during her freshman season, sophomore Heidi Thelen rounds out the group of veteran middles.

Washington burst onto the scene in September after an injury sidelined her for the opening portion of the 2014 season. In 25 appearances on the court, she finished first on the team with a .463 hitting percentage, while also tallying 96 blocks. Washington highlighted the season with Big Ten Freshman of the Year honors, as well as spots on both the All-Big Ten and Freshman All-Big Ten teams.

"Haleigh is an exceptional offensive talent," Rose said. "She has picked up her game both offensively and blocking-wise and I think both she and Ali [Franti] benefited from their experience with the national team when they trained there this spring."

Thelen saw action in six matches during the 2014 season. She highlighted the year with six kills on .364 hitting with two blocks in her collegiate debut against Iona in the Penn State Classic. Thelen also saw action in the NCAA Tournament, posting a solo stuff against Siena to clinch Penn State's first round victory.

Sophomore Simone Lee

"Heidi continues to make significant strides in her game. Hopefully this year she'll come out and be a little more reliable and strong at the middle blocking position," Rose said.

LEGENDS IN THE MAKING

Freshman Tori Gorrell will look to make an impact in 2015 as the only newcomer at the middle position. Gorrell attended Abbey Park High School in Oakville, Ontario, helping Abbey Park to the Ontario Federation of School Athletic Association AAA volleyball championship. In addition to helping the team to an undefeated season, she also guided the squad to Halton Tier I and Golden Horseshoe Athletic Conference AA titles.

"We've had Tori in camp for a couple of years, so we've been able to work with her a little more than the other freshmen," Rose said. "She's not going to be the biggest middle, however she has good speed and plays hard."

Gorrell played club volleyball with Toronto's Leaside, where she earned Ontario Volleyball Association U17 All-Star honors in 2013-14 and Pre-season Humber Tournament All-Star honors in 2014.

OUTSIDE HITTER & OPPOSITE

FAMILIAR FACES

Penn State returns a solid group of experienced hitters, but Rose is quick to point out that the ability to hit is an important part of the game – but not the only part of the game.

Redshirt senior Aiyana Whitney, senior Megan Courtney and sophomore Simone Lee all made contributions last year. Nia Reed also joins the group of returners after redshirting the 2014 season.

Courtney started all 39 matches for the Nittany Lions during the 2014 season, finishing third on the team with 2.44 kills per set and second on the squad with 2.34 digs per set. She highlighted the year with a clutch career-high performance in the NCAA national semifinals. Courtney put away 23 kills and tallied 16 digs to help Penn State to its spot in the NCAA title match. She ended the year with 11 kills, 14 digs and five blocks in the NCAA national finals against BYU to help PSU to the NCAA national championship. She earned 2014 NCAA Championship Most Outstanding Player honors for her performances against Stanford and BYU.

"Megan has been a terrific player for us since she arrived as a freshman," Rose said. "We haven't had that many players who have started all four years and she'll be starting her senior year as a person who can be added to that list. I think her ability to play the game is really something we have a great deal of dependence on."

As a multi-purpose player, Whitney could also make follow up last year with another big impact in the group as well. Whitney earned second team All-America honors during the 2014 season, as well as All-Big Ten honorable mention distinction. She finished second on the team with 2.95 kills per set and her .353 hitting percentage closed out the year ranked fifth in the Big Ten standings.

During the summer season, Whitney was also selected as Penn State's representative on the inaugural Big Ten Foreign Tour team. Whitney and the Big Ten team traveled to Slovenia, Croatia and Italy to play different teams, while also partaking in different community service initiatives.

"Aiyana had a great trip to Europe with the Big Ten team this summer," Rose said. "As a player who can fill a couple of positions for us at both middle and outside, our success can be linked to her performance."

Lee made solid contributions in 2014, totaling 135 kills in her first season in the Blue and White. She made 26 appearances on the court and started in two matches. Most notably, Lee came off the bench in the NCAA regional finals with 12 kills against Wisconsin. Earlier in the 2014 season, she also led the team with 12 kills in the victory against the Badgers in the 2014 Big Ten opener.

"This spring, I thought our most improved player was Simone," Rose said. "Simone really picked up her confidence and at times was one of our best attackers."

Despite redshirting the 2014 season, Reed will also be another offensive option for the Nittany Lions this year.

From the same high school as former Nittany Lion Ariel Scott, Reed was a four-year starter at Immaculate Heart Academy. Prior to Penn State, she led her high school teams to four consecutive non-public state championships.

"I think it will take some time for Nia to get her game ready to play again," Rose said. "But I would expect, as I thought when we elected to redshirt her, that there are going to be times when she makes a real contribution to front row play."

LEGENDS IN THE MAKING

Jelena Novakovic, a left-handed ride side attacker, joins the Nittany Lions from Belgrade, Serbia. With experience playing on the Serbian Junior National Team, Novakovic also played club volleyball with Red Star Belgrade.

"Jelena was a late addition to this year's recruiting class," Rose said. "I feel she has good experience and like a lot of young players, it will take time for her to get acclimated to the speed of the game and the physical nature of the game at the Big Ten college level."

Novakovic helped Red Star to a National Cup title in 2014 and a silver medal at the 2014 Championship, while also earning MVP honors at the U17 International Belgrade Tournament. She earned gold at the European Championship with the U19 Serbian Junior National Team in 2014, as well as another gold medal at the Balkan Championship in Subotica, Serbia.

DEFENSIVE SPECIALIST/LIBERO

FAMILIAR FACES

Departures from Dominique Gonzalez and Lacey Fuller present another top priority for the Nittany Lions heading into the 2015 season. This year's returners include seniors Kendall Pierce and Lara Caraway, juniors Carley Muller and Taylor Krause and sophomore Lainy Pierce. Junior Laura Broerman will not compete this season due to an injury.

One of two team captains this year, Kendall has the most experience of the group on the court.

"Kendall does a variety of things for us," Rose said. "One of the things she does for us is that she serves as one of our captains. I think she's improved each year, as far as what role she's capable of playing and she'll certainly be in the mix at the libero spot."

Kendall saw action in 37 of the team's 39 matches during the 2014 season, totaling 47 digs and four aces. She highlighted the season with a career-high performance in the 2014 NCAA national semifinals, posting five digs in the victory against top-ranked Stanford.

Kendall's sister Lainy made 30 appearances on the court in her debut season at Penn State. Coming in mostly as a serving specialist, she totaled 11 aces and 19 digs, including a career-high three digs in the NCAA national championship match against BYU.

"Lainy continues to do what I thought she was confident in last year," Rose said. "She has a good serve and she's not afraid to come into the game and take a good swing at the ball."

Juniors Carley Muller and Taylor Krause saw limited experience in 2014, but also remain in the mix. Krause played in 21 matches last year, while Muller made 14 appearances.

"Carley and Taylor are two of our more competitive players and hopefully one of them will emerge as someone who can come in and make plays and be tough in clutch situations," Rose said.

Caraway played in 11 matches during the season, making five appearances on the court in Big Ten conference matches.

"Lara has not played a lot, but she has played hard and she's been a terrific student-athlete," Rose said. "She always puts Penn State volleyball as one of her priorities and her behavior exemplifies that."

LEGENDS IN THE MAKING

Keeton Holcomb is the only incoming defensive specialist in the freshmen class. A four-year letterwinner and team MVP at Bellville High School in Bellville, Texas, she earned AAA First Team All-State honors in 2013-14, as well as Texas Sports Writers Association All-State honors in 2013.

Holcomb is a MaxPreps Second Team All-American, having also been named to the 2014 Under Armour All-American watch list. Holcomb played club volleyball with Houston Juniors, where she earned 2012 All-Texas Team honorable mention honors.

With so many potential options in the group, Rose is certainly not counting Holcomb out of the mix for the libero position.

NITTANY LION COACHING STAFF

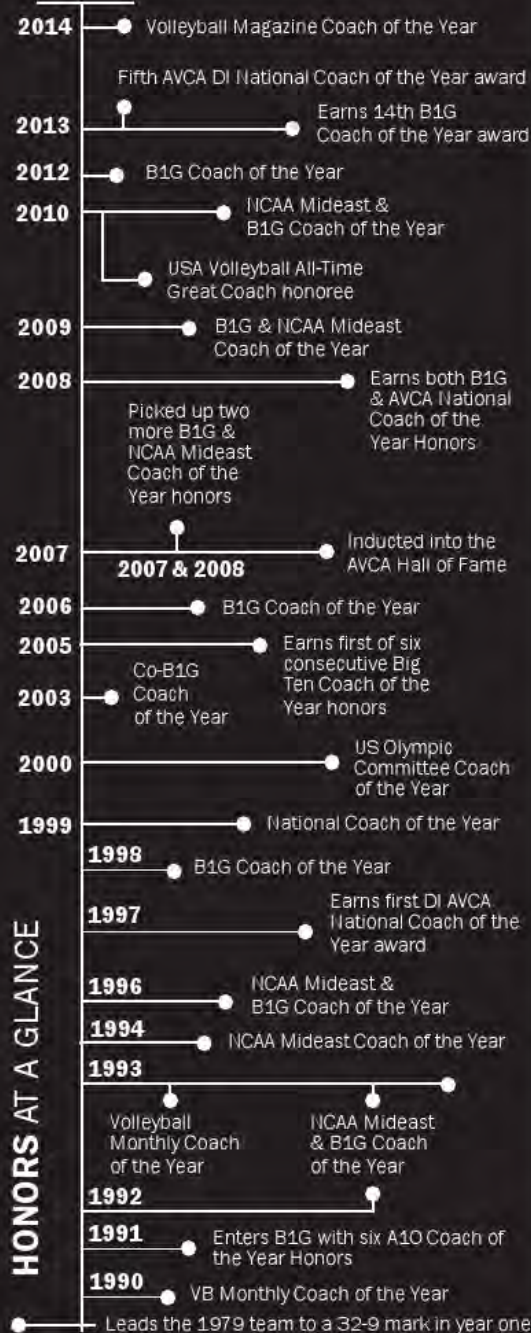

RUSS ROSE, COACHES & SUPPORT STAFF

HEAD COACH RUSS ROSE

37th year | George Williams '75
Career record: 1,161-180

It's been nearly four decades since Russ Rose arrived on campus in Happy Valley. Entering his 37th season at the helm of the Penn State women's volleyball, his name has become synonymous with the pride and tradition of the storied program. The leader of arguably the nation's most elite women's volleyball program, his record-setting seven NCAA national titles and 16 Big Ten championships speak directly to the confidence and character he's passed along throughout his career.

Few have come close to matching Rose's impressive win total, as he's collected victories at a staggering pace. Never having posted less than 22 wins in a season, his 1,161 career wins rank first all-time among NCAA DI head coaches.

As each year passes, his list of accomplishments continue to swell, but a quick snapshot of his legendary tenure might read something like this: The leader of a women's volleyball powerhouse who's kept his program among the nation's elite for nearly 40 years, amassing a stunning career record of 1,161-180. He's guided his teams to a record-setting seven NCAA national titles, including an unprecedented four consecutive championships from 2007-10. Along with 16 Big Ten titles, his program is one of only two women's volleyball schools to compete in all 34 NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball National Championship events. He's produced four Olympians, four AVCA National Players of the Year, 13 Big Ten conference Players of the Year and at least one AVCA All-American in 35 of 36 seasons. His student-athletes excel in the classroom as well, with an outstanding 140 Academic All-Big Ten selections and five Academic All-Americans.

>> HE PREFERS NOT FOCUS ON PERSONAL ACCOLADES

Rose is the first to tell anyone who asks that he prefers to place the focus on the student-athlete, rather than his own personal accolades. As both a coach and an educator, Rose's impact at Penn State runs much deeper than women's volleyball. He teaches a yearly course in coaching ethics that regularly meets capacity each fall it's offered. He has also opened up several cultural opportunities for his student-athletes, taking his teams on four foreign trips to five different countries in the last 15 years.

>> AMONG THE ELITE: THE WINNINGEST COACH OF ALL TIME

It seemed only fitting that Rose's 1,000th career victory came against Hawaii's Dave Shoji, who is the only other active DI head coach to reach the milestone mark. It was December 18, 2009 when the top-ranked Nittany Lions advanced to the NCAA national championship match with a 3-1 win against the No. 12 Rainbow Warriors. Victory number 1,001 came just two days later as Rose guided Penn State to its third consecutive NCAA national championship with a sweeping victory against California.

Another 132 wins later, Rose entered the fourth week of the 2014 season just one win shy of tying Shoji for first place on the list of winningest active Division I head coaches with 1,132 victories. After a 4-0 weekend at home, he moved into first place ahead of Shoji with 1,136 career wins. The two went back and forth throughout the season, but Penn State's run to its seventh NCAA national championship in 2014 vaulted Rose 11 wins ahead of Shoji, placing him firmly atop the active division I career standings at the conclusion of the season.

Prior to topping the list of division I winningest active coaches by victories, his .866 career winning clip has ranked first on the percentage chart for the past several years. Now at the top of both lists, he's one of just two active NCAA division I coaches to amass more than 1,100 career wins and one of four active coaches across all three divisions to join the 1,000 victories club.

On the list of winningest coaches of all time, Rose's 1,161-180 tally is unmatched at first place. Along with Shoji and former UCLA head coach Andy Banachowski, the three are the only Division I coaches in NCAA women's volleyball coaching history to total 1,100 or more victories.

>> HE'S WON SEVEN NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

After reaching the NCAA title match for two consecutive seasons from 1997-98, Penn State swept past top-ranked Stanford in the 1999 national final to earn the program's first NCAA championship. It had been seven years since the Nittany Lions reached the field of final four teams when Penn State arrived in Sacramento for the 2007 national semifinals. Having already won their fifth consecutive Big Ten title with a perfect 20-0 mark in conference play, Penn State's group of four AVCA All-Americans helped PSU to a thrilling five-set victory against Stanford for the program's second NCAA crown.

Rose's Nittany Lions improved upon 2007's result the very next season, winning their third national title to become the sixth women's volleyball program to win back-to-back championships and the fourth team to win it with an undefeated record. The 2008 team featured an entire starting front row of AVCA All-Americans, including National Player of the Year, Nicole Fawcett, who helped Penn State to a perfect 38-0 record during the year. The Nittany Lions had won a record-breaking 111 consecutive sets on their way to the title before entering 2009 on a NCAA record-breaking 64-match winning streak. Penn State set the scene once again with another 20-0 record in conference play, helped out by four returning All-Americans in Megan Hodge, Alisha Glass, Arielle Wilson and Blair Brown.

Rose was inducted into the AVCA Hall of Fame, held in conjunction with the 2007 NCAA National Championship in Sacramento.

Back-to-back national titles proved not enough for the Nittany Lions, who became the first team in division I women's volleyball history to win three in a row with a come-from-behind triumph against No. 2 Texas in the 2009 national finals. Rose guided Penn State to a 38-0 record for the second straight season, helping the team extend its record-breaking winning streak to 102-consecutive matches, a feat that has never been accomplished by any other team in NCAA women's volleyball history. He also mentored Hodge to AVCA National Player of the Year honors.

Aside from those who believed Penn State's luck had run out, the Nittany Lions were unfazed and began a quest for a fourth straight NCAA national championship in 2010. Things got off to a rough start as the record-breaking winning streak came to an end at 109 consecutive matches. Stanford, the last team to defeat the Nittany Lions in 2007, upended Penn State September 11, 2010.

The Nittany Lions regrouped and won their eighth straight and 14th overall Big Ten title to earn an automatic berth to NCAA tournament. Proving unstoppable through tournament play, Penn State stormed past Texas in the national semifinals before capturing a 3-0 win against California for an unprecedented fourth consecutive crown.

Just two seasons passed before the Nittany Lions were back in the NCAA national finals on the heels of their 16th Big Ten title in program history. This time, Penn State was taking on fellow conference opponent Wisconsin in the first-ever all Big Ten title match in 2013. Penn State held off the Badgers in four sets to earn the program's sixth NCAA national championship. Seniors Deja McClendon, Ariel Scott, Katie Slay and Maddie Martin rounded out their careers with two championships and a total of 10 AVCA All-America honors between the four.

With such key departures, many counted the Nittany Lions out of contention for the 2014 NCAA national championship. Led by AVCA National Player of the Year Micha Hancock, the Nittany Lions pushed past top-ranked Stanford in the national semifinals before sweeping Brigham Young University to win its seventh NCAA national championship, and sixth in the last eight years.

Penn State's seven NCAA national championships stand alone as the most of any women's volleyball program in history. With Rose at the helm of the program for all seven titles, he's the only Division I head coach in NCAA women's volleyball history to collect seven crowns at one school.

>> HE'S A GREAT DANCER

Having never lost a first round matchup, the Nittany Lions are regular contenders in the later rounds of the event. Rose has guided his tournament teams to a total of 10 appearances in the NCAA national finals. This past season, Penn State captured a straight set victory against BYU for its sixth NCAA national championship in the eight last years, as PSU has also not lost an NCAA title match since 1998. The victory also marked the third time in history that the Nittany Lions have swept its national final opponent.

Among all the victories, honors, title and awards, perhaps one of the most astounding set of numbers is Penn State's impressive home court record at Rec Hall. Rose has guided his teams to a total of 17 undefeated regular season slates at home. The Nittany Lions have also put together a combined home court record of 315-15 across all 39 years of women's volleyball at Penn State, including a 258-19 record in Big Ten conference matches at home under the direction of Rose. Only one Big Ten school has been able to top Penn State more than three times at home since joining the conference in 1991.

>> COACHING HONORS

Across his tenure as head coach, Rose has been honored with a plethora of coaching awards. Most recently, Rose was honored as both the AVCA Division I National Coach of the Year and the Big Ten Coach of the Year in 2013. Those awards were not the first for Rose, who's earned

In 2007, Rose was one of three coaches inducted into the America Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Hall of Fame. In the same year, he was also honored as the AVCA DI National Coach of the Year, the AVCA Midwest Region Coach of the Year and the Big Ten Coach of the Year. In 2008, Rose repeated with the same trio of prestigious honors. From 2005-10, Rose earned six consecutive Big Ten Coach of the Year awards, while also earning the back-to-back national recognition in 2007 and 2008. In the last 10 years, he's been voted the Big Ten Coach of the Year eight times, receiving two straight selections from 2012-13. Additionally, Rose has earned AVCA Regional Coach of the Year honors a total of 11 times.

Prior to the Big Ten Conference, Rose earned Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year honors six times, while guiding his teams to eight consecutive championships. In seven seasons of round-robin play, the Nittany Lions never lost a conference match, putting together a string of 49 consecutive wins before heading into the Big Ten conference in 1991.

In 2014, Penn State's renowned Berkey Creamery unveiled a new "Hall of Fame" ice cream flavor named after Rose. The flavor, Russ "digs" Roseberry, joins the creamery's lineup of "hall of fame" permanent flavors, which pay tribute to Penn State people and institutions that have had significant impact on the University and wider community.

The ice cream variety is made with black raspberry puree, whole strawberries, red raspberry sauce and Wilbur's chocolate in a strawberry base. The addition of Rose's flavor marked the first time in more than 20 years that the Berkey Creamery has released a "Hall of Fame" flavor, with the last release being "Peachy Paterno" in honor of Joe Paterno.

Throughout his career, Rose has been called upon to share his expertise with the coaches and players who represent the United States in international competition. Rose served as head coach of the United States men's team, which won the bronze medal at the 1985 Maccabiah Games, and the United States women's silver medal team in the 1981 Maccabiah Games. He won bronze medals as an assistant coach of the women's team in the 1982 National Sports Festival and as the East women's head coach at the 1983 Festival.

In 1989, he was an assistant coach with the United States men's national team for an exhibition series with Canada and the Soviet Union. In 1990, Rose worked with members of the men's national and developmental teams during training camp in San Diego. In 1993, he assisted in the U.S. men's matches with Canada and the women's team against China. He also assisted the U.S. men as they prepared for the 2000 Olympics in Sydney. In 2014, he went with the U.S. men's team to the World League matches against Bulgaria.

In the summer of 2002, Rose assisted the U.S. men's team on a 13-day tour of Italy where they competed against the world's top teams, including Brazil, Italy, Yugoslavia, Russia and Holland.

He also served as team manager for the U.S. men's team at the Four Nations Tournament in Leipzig, Germany, in May of 2008. Rose was also inducted into the National Jewish Sports Hall of Fame in 2010.

In June 2011, Rose served as the team leader to the U.S. Women's National Team at the Montreux Volley Masters in Montreux, Switzerland. He joined former Nittany Lions, Megan Hodge, Alisha Glass and Nicole Fawcett. The squad went 2-1 in pool play and finished fourth overall. An instructor in the USVBA coaches certification program, Rose has previously served as a national referee and evaluator and state director for volleyball for the Special Olympics. In 2005, USA Volleyball named Rose one of their All-Time Great Coaches, making him the first Big Ten coach to ever receive the honor.

As active clinician, Rose also coached professional men's volleyball in the Superior League in Puerto Rico in 1976 and has continued to do clinics on the island as well as in the United States and Europe. Rose was also member of the NCAA Division I Volleyball Committee for six years and the NCAA representative to the United States Volleyball Association Rules Committee.

Most recently, Rose was selected as the recipient of the 2013 Honorary Penn State Alumni award. A prestigious honor, the Honorary Alumni Awards are presented to individuals who are not Penn State graduates, but have made significant contributions to the welfare, reputation and prestige of the institution. The award is only given when the Alumni Association wishes to honor an exceptional person.

>> A ROSE IN HAPPY VALLEY

Rose graduated from George Williams College in 1975, having played volleyball on the school's 1974 National Association for Intercollegiate Athletics national championship team.

Following graduation, Rose remained at George Williams for two years as a part time coach, helping the women's team win two state titles, as well as a sixth-place finish in national competition. He also served as an assistant for the men's team that won the national championship in 1977.

In 1978, he completed his master's degree at Nebraska, while also serving as the defensive coach for the Cornhuskers.

While writing his thesis on volleyball statistics, he led the junior varsity team to a two-year varsity mark of 52-5.

After leaving Nebraska, Rose had plans to continue his postgraduate education at BYU before a last minute change of plans brought him to Happy Valley.

"I was accepted at BYU to get my EdD," Rose said. "I received a teaching assistantship. I was ready to go. I met with the resident bishop and then I was offered the Penn State job."

In 2013, Rose was named an Honorary Penn State Alumni. In honor of earning one of Penn State's most prestigious awards, he was presented with an engraved bench outside Rec Hall.

It was 1979 when Rose arrived on campus, set to take the reigns of the women's volleyball program from legendary Penn State men's and women's volleyball head coach Tom Tait.

"I had just turned 25," Rose said. "I was happy I had a coaching job, I didn't know what I didn't know. I didn't have an office. I didn't have a telephone, I didn't have anything. I had 16 or 18 classes to teach a year, no assistant coach. I thought I had a good deal."

His first career victory at Penn State came September 21, 1979, when Rose guided the Nittany Lions to a 2-0 (17-15, 15-13) win against Navy in the season opener at the George Washington Invitational.

Rose led the 1979 Penn State women's volleyball team to a 32-9 overall record in his first season at the helm of the program. The result of a successful season? A $400 raise.

Rose married Lori Barberich, a former three-time All-American at Penn State, in 1986. Together, they have four sons, Jonathan, Michael, Christopher and Nicholas.

The Rose family: Nicholas, Christopher, Lori, Coach Rose, Jonathan & Michael.

Russ rose has taken Penn State from the regionally competitive level to that of an NCAA power since he took over the Penn State women's volleyball program in 1979. the development has been complete and successful, because of excellent talent and an equally sound method. The following is "the Russ Rose coaching philosophy."

COACH'S ROLE

"I believe the coach has numerous roles that require constant review and attention. First, and foremost, is the recruitment of quality student-athletes. With effective coaching, athletes have always been the key to a team's success."

"Secondly, we as a staff have to relate to the players what we feel is important for their growth and success. All the knowledge in the world will prove to be useless if we can't prepare our team for competition. We've shown this to be one of our strengths. I have great confidence that Salima, having played for me as well as Stevie and Shawn understand me and the program. I know they will do whatever it takes to help the players improve and pursue their dreams."

"Third, we have to prepare the team, physically, tactically and mentally. The physical preparation is easy, as the entire Penn State environment encourages the pursuit of excellence as shown by our years of high finishes in the Director's Cup results. The fact that all of our fall sports teams have won Big Ten titles more than reinforces that school of thought. The mental aspect of our players' development is one of the areas that I feel has separated us from our competition. We are committed as a group to reaching the highest levels possible - year in and year out. The team understands the need to be accountable, and I'm not hesitant to get their focus headed in the right direction."

"Certainly our time in the Big Ten has demonstrated to us the importance of making sure that the players are aware of what is going to be expected of them in a conference as strong as the Big Ten. It's been the strongest conference in the country as determined by the RPI and has led the nation in attendance for a number of years."

"Outside the Big Ten, we commit to play a competitive non-conference schedule. We continually strive to meet teams during the regular-season that have advanced in the national championship playoffs. It is a goal of mine for Penn State to always be in the top five in strength of schedule."

"I contend that the best way to see where our team is and where we aspire to be, is to play the nation's best teams. Our administration has allowed us to compete annually for the national championship. Universities enable teams to compete for the national championship. I have been blessed to have an administration that possessed the vision to support our program and I feel we have been able to deliver. It starts at the top with a University President and Athletic Director and staff who guide and assist the program."

"I think our role here is to attract the type of player who wants to be at Penn State, understands what we are about and knows what it will take to fit into our program. I refuse to be in the position where we are going to be saying one thing to get a player interested in Penn State and then change our story once the athlete arrives on campus. I am interested in players who are willing to be up front, committed and passionate in what they see in their own development and what we can do to help them succeed."

"In turn, players must be willing to commit to the process and accept the culture of our program. They must work to be the best they can be every day in training, at practice and in matches. When those things happen, the results speak for themselves. It is a collaborative effort. Every team is different and has its own methods and paths to follow with the ultimate goal of being successful."

"Over the years I have been contacted by numerous schools as well as the U.S. National Team and foreign professional teams regarding vacant coaching positions, however I feel that the support I receive from the administration at Penn State is perfect for me, and I have no interest in coaching anywhere but Penn State. The opportunity to work and travel with our men's and women's national teams is perfect and it allows me to see the best volleyball played in the world."

TEAM PLAY

"Team play really deals with volleyball being the ultimate team sport. The last few years, we've not only had outstanding talent but we've had a great team spirit. Talent can get you only so far. If players aren't working together and committed to achieve great things, sacrificing and willing to embrace the needs of the team, then the team isn't going to shine. I can't guarantee recruits that we're going to win a conference championship or play for a national championship, albeit our goals should be along those lines. I guarantee them they're going to get better, be treated fairly and will have an opportunity to play."

"The team that is willing to emphasize the pursuit of excellence at its own personal expense is the team that most often succeeds. Our success over the years, where we have won numerous conference titles and advanced to the national semifinal and championship matches, continues to reinforce these beliefs. The seven national championships are clearly the icing on the cake. A national championship does not validate a coach, a player or their program. It highlights the efforts of many and allows the community to celebrate the actions of the team. Our goal is to remain at that level and even if we fall short, we know that we are in the game. The pursuit is the challenge and getting to the final match is the reward."

FUNDAMENTALS

"Fundamentals and the player's development of them are the most important aspect of the game. The game is played by players who have to be able to execute the basic skills of the game. We try to recruit student-athletes who are great volleyball players but the game always comes down to the execution of the core fundamentals."

"I will not sacrifice the time necessary to develop a strong foundation. This is where a team's discipline and confidence is first introduced and developed. Our commitment to each team is for every one of our players to be challenged to become the best they can be every day. I know our players are constantly improving their game here. I can't guarantee victories but I can guarantee a player will improve at Penn State, and that is evidenced by the number of athletes who have received individual awards or chosen to further their careers with the national team or receive the opportunity to play professionally."

TEAM DEFENSE

"Team defense is always an area we pride ourselves on and has always been one of the staples of our program. The pursuit of the ball in a game can only occur through preparation and repetition. I believe that everyone in the program has to rally around certain principles. At Penn State, we play hard, controlled defense, which means every player pursues every ball or they are taken out. I believe if you train hard, then the game itself begins to appear easy. If a player starts making decisions on what ball they think they can get and what they think is somebody else's ball, that's when we try to make some adjustments and get someone else involved in the play. Our defensive philosophy is to keep every ball in play – every day of each season in practice as well as games. I believe we have shown this works over the long haul as well. Defense and winning are an attitude and we attempt to do the latter by emphasizing the former. I feel our defense and grit in 2009's title match was the key to our win."

STUDENT-ATHLETE

"The term student-athlete is a very valid one here at Penn State and in the Big Ten. We recruit not only quality athletes, but quality students as well. There is no question in my mind that the well-rounded individual will be better prepared to deal with the numerous challenges faced in life. The programs available at Penn State are geared for success. The opportunity to pursue your potential, both academically and athletically, is in place and working well at Penn State. The student support services at Penn State and the job Jim Weaver does with our team is outstanding. It is a reflection of the entire athletic department's commitment to provide the necessary services for the student-athletes to pursue and achieve their dreams."

"I expect a commitment both to academics and athletics. I take great pride in the fact that every young woman who has entered our program and completed her playing eligibility has received or is working toward her degree. Rankings of the 31 athletic programs on campus reveal that the women's volleyball team annually posts one of the highest cumulative grade-point averages. With proper emphasis on the importance of maintaining high academic standards, I know we will achieve continual success. At Penn State, we have had the most members of the Academic All-Big Ten team as a sport and an institution since joining the conference, and we take great pride in always have two or three academic All-Americans each year. That speaks volumes about our student-athletes as well as our academic advising staff."

THE BIG TEN CONFERENCE

"The Big Ten, in my opinion, continues to be one of the strongest conferences in the country in both fan support and performance. It is a conference that is totally committed to the pursuit of excellence. The opportunity to play volleyball in the Big Ten truly enhances our program. The excitement generated by the athletes and fans at matches is great for the sport. It continues to be a great environment in which to compete. The conference has been ranked No. 1 in the volleyball RPI ratings since 1998 and has been a national leader in attendance the past six years. Additionally, no conference has had more teams advance to the final four."

PENN STATE UNIVERSITY

"Penn State as a school has been very fortunate and good for women's volleyball. I don't think there is another school in the country that has the support of everyone from the president of the university and the athletic director, to the residents of State College. Our players really reap the benefits of being at Penn State. I am extremely optimistic on the future of Penn State women's volleyball and there is no place in the country I'd rather be than Penn State. The community has supported us during our development and the university's commitment is to be the best in everything it offers, from academics and research to music and the arts to athletics."

RECRUITING

"Recruiting is the life blood of a program and a team. It is our goal to encourage quality student athletes to visit Penn State with their parents to get a realistic view of what is really entailed with what we refer to as the 'Penn State Experience.' The campus, the environment and face of State College truly separates us from many of the other schools in the country as we exemplify the meaning of a 'college town.' The chemistry that exists between the team members is what has kept us competitive and the energy that exists between the university and the town of State College keeps the juices flowing. We want players that want to make a commitment to be the best that they can be. We also want players to be aware of the fact that I am looking for a level of accountability from them as well. I'm not looking for a situation where I'm going to spend 24 hours a day, seven days a week trying to monitor their lifestyles or get involved in preventing them from having a good time. I believe the college experience at this time in their lives is the greatest opportunity to have fun and explore. I think you live hard and play hard and at Penn State, the students have a great opportunity to have fun in multiple areas."

STAFF

"I feel great about our staff. We are fortunate to have Salima Rockwell and Stevie Mussie. The position of Director of Volleyball Operations has also demonstrated the university's commitment to women's volleyball and I feel great about the contribution of Jesse Tupac. His time at U.S.A. Volleyball has allowed him to hit the ground running. Some people would think that having people who are from their alma mater would be a negative but I see it as a positive. It's a positive thing to have people with experience involved because they know in this program, they are going to be encouraged to have an opinion and their opinions are going to be heard. I respect what my former players have to say and the players can turn to them and get good feedback and not be dependent on having to interact with me all of the time. An additional benefit that is important in our philosophy is that we try and look at the strengths of the players and how best to get them to contribute as well as continue to meet their goals. We think it's a tremendous bonus."

"We're one of five schools in the country who have had a men's and a women's team that have won a national championship in volleyball and the only school outside of California and Hawaii that can make that claim and I think it's terrific that volleyball is on the map here year round. The interaction between the men's and women's programs here is exceptional. Both schools winning the national title's during the same academic year allow the sport to be recognized nationally and valued here by our many fans and the great student support."

BOOSTER CLUB

"Our Booster Club has been outstanding with everything we've asked them to be involved in. They funded our five foreign trips (Cuba, Italy and Brazil and Europe), pay for our banquet and support us at home and on the road. They also provide a welcoming environment for the players away from home where they can go for dinner and can interact with people who are supportive of the program. The Boosters are incredibly welcoming. I always get comments from parents of recruits about how welcoming everyone is. I think that's a part of Penn State and State College and it's been a big part of our program."

Former Penn State All-American Salima Rockwell enters her second season back at Penn State since rejoining the program after serving as both an assistant and associate head coach at Texas for five seasons. Widely regarded as one of the nation's top assistant coaches, Rockwell returned to Penn State as an associate head coach for the Nittany Lions.

In her first season back, Rockwell helped guide the Nittany Lions to their seventh NCAA national championship in program history. Rockwell also mentored setter Micha Hancock to AVCA DI National Player of the Year honors.

"We're very happy with Salima and her family's decision to return to Penn State. We'd like to welcome Salima, her husband Jeff and their two children back to the Penn State community," head coach Russ Rose said.

Rockwell spent five seasons as an associate head coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Texas before returning to Penn State. While with the Longhorns, Rockwell helped guide Texas to three NCAA national semifinal appearances, including a national championship in 2012. She also helped sign the No. 2 recruiting class in 2012, which included three top 10 recruits. Most recently, Rockwell was the recipient of the 2013 AVCA National Assistant Coach of the Year Award.

During her collegiate career at Penn State, Rockwell (Davidson) was a three-time All-American under coach Rose from 1991-94, picking up four All-Big Ten honors, including three first team selections and Big Ten Player of the Year honors in 1993. She also earned back-to-back NCAA Tournament All-Tournament team honors at the 1993 and 1994 national finals.

Following her time in the Blue and White, she played with the United States National team from 1995-99, serving as an alternate on the 1996 squad at the Olympic games in Atlanta. She also served as team captain in 1997 and 1998, earning MVP honors at the Montreux BCV Volley Cup in 1998.

After leaving the court as a player, Rockwell accepted an assistant coaching position at the University of Pittsburgh, where she began to emerge as one of the nation's top recruiters, signing four of the team's five top-ranked recruits in 2002.

"Salima has always been a natural leader who brings a set of intangibles to the program. She relates especially well with young people, and her impact is very large as a mentor and coach. She's given a great deal of her life to volleyball and I think volleyball has really benefited from her involvement," Rose said.

In 2006, Rockwell returned to Rec Hall as the Nittany Lions' director of volleyball operations after spending a season at Oregon State, under the direction of head coach Terry Liskevych. From 2007-08, she served as an assistant coach, helping guide Penn State to back-to-back national championships. Rockwell also mentored multi-year All-American, Alisha Glass, who directed the Nittany Lion offenses to some of the nation's highest hitting percentages, including a .350 clip in 2007 and a .390 efficiency in 2008.

Rockwell and her husband Jeff have two sons, Logan and Rylan.

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO

2008-09 - Assistant Coach

Stevie Mussie enters her second season with Penn State women's volleyball. She previously served as an assistant coach at the University of Virginia.

In 2014, Mussie helped the Nittany Lions to their seventh NCAA national championship in program history. She also served as a mentor to four AVCA All-Americans, including National Freshman of the Year, Ali Frantti.

Prior to Penn State, Mussie was an assistant coach at Virginia. While at Virginia, Mussie was involved in all aspects of recruiting, as well as training passers and pin hitters. During her tenure, she helped transform the program, improving the team from a 9-22 squad in 2012 to a fifth-place finish in the ACC in 2013. She also assisted in the development of 2013 ACC Freshman of the Year, Jasmine Burton, as well as two AVCA All-America honorable mentions and two All-ACC selections.

"Stevie [Mussie] came highly recommended from two people whose opinions I value highly in Dennis Hohenshelt, my former assistant coach and the current head coach at Virginia, and Jim McLaughlin, who was her coach when she was at Washington," head coach Russ Rose said.

"Stevie embraces the idea of working hard and giving the players the tools to enhance their chances for success," Rose said.

Prior to Virginia, Mussie spent two years as an assistant at North Carolina State, where she helped the Wolfpack move up 150 spots in the NCAA RPI rankings. The increase marked the largest improvement by a first-year staff in history.

Mussie graduated from Washington in 2008, with a bachelor's degree in sociology after transferring from Pacific in 2004. Mussie played in three consecutive NCAA tournaments during her career at Washington. She was part of the 2005 national championship squad as well as the 2006 national finals team. In her senior season with the Huskies, Mussie was named the most outstanding player at the 2006 NCAA Seattle regional and also earned first-team All-PAC 10 honors.

Following graduation, Mussie spent a year as an assistant coach at the University of Colorado, before moving to the junior club level, where she was the regional director at Team Complete Athlete, a high-profile club based in Newport Beach, Calif. from 2009-10.

Jesse Tupac enters his first season as the Nittany Lion's Director of Volleyball Operations. Tupac comes to Penn State after serving as a graduate assistant at Iowa State.

While at Iowa State, the 2014 Cyclones finished the season ranked second in the Big 12 standings and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Prior to Iowa State, he spent the 2013 season at Loyola Marymount (Calif.) as a volunteer assistant with the women's volleyball team, assisting with team training, video coordinating, data analysis and the compilation of scouting reports.

Outside of intercollegiate athletics, Tupac has served in various positions with USA Volleyball for the past two years. Most recently, he was named the technical coordinator on the women's indoor national team roster for the gold-medal winning 2015 Pan American Games team. In 2014, he was also technical coordinator for the women's volleyball indoor youth national squad at the NORCECA World Championship Qualifier.

Earlier this spring, Tupac was honored as a recipient of the 2015 AVCA 30 Under 30 awards, which honors 30 of the most up-and-coming volleyball coaches under 30 years old at all levels of the game.

At the club level, he served as head coach of the All Iowa Attack 18s Team, helping the squad to a first-place finish at both the Iowa Regionals and the Northern Lights USAV Qualifier. In his first two years as the associate club director with All Iowa, he coached the 17s team to a 2014 17-National Gold medal and saw the club grow from five teams to nine. Three of his players received All-America honors from PrepVolleyball.com. Tupac also spent seven years as a coach and administrator for the Sunshine Volleyball Club.

During his collegiate career, Tupac was a member of the UCLA men's volleyball team, coached by Al Scates. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in English and later began pursuing his Masters of Education at Iowa State.

Every player, staff member and coach will not stop pushing the limits to what we can become as a team. Since January, we have been committed to working hard in the weight room, conditioning and improving our game on and off the court. We are driven to doing what it takes to be in Omaha in December and bringing home one more title to Penn State."

COURTNEY'S EXPECTATIONS

"My expectations for this upcoming year are the same as the last 36. To win - but win the right way! We expect our opponents' best game and best effort, so it is only fair we expect the same for ourselves. My last season at Penn State will be just as special as the previous years, and the team has one goal in mind as we look right around the corner for season. Winning is the only option. We aren't going to take anything for granted or leave anything behind."

- Six Big Ten volleyball teams were selected to the 2014 NCAA Volleyball Tournament. Big Ten Champion Wisconsin entered the tournament as the highest seeded team at No. 4 overall seed, while Penn State entered at No. 5. Illinois rounded out the top 10 at No. 9 and No. 14 Nebraska also earned a top-16 seed. Michigan State and Ohio State also received bids to round out the Big Ten contingent in the tournament. All six Big Ten teams compiled an 18-5 overall record during this year's event.

- Three different Big Ten teams matched up during the 2014 NCAA Tournament, marking the 18th occasion that two league teams have faced each other during the event. Ohio State and Wisconsin met in the Louisville regional semifinals, with the Badgers advancing to the regional finals to square off against the Nittany Lions. Penn State pushed past Wisconsin in four sets to earn a spot in the NCAA national semifinals. Of the nine teams that have been presented with the matchup over the years, Penn State holds the best record in intra-conference NCAA play at 9-1, followed by Illinois (3-2) and Wisconsin (4-2) and Minnesota (2-2), Ohio State (2-6), Michigan (1-1), Purdue (1-3), Iowa (0-1) and Michigan State (0-3).

- Seven Big Ten volleyball teams were ranked or receiving votes in the final AVCA Division I Coaches poll of the 2014 season, which was released on Dec. 22. The NCAA champion Nittany Lions led the way at No. 1, followed by Big Ten Champion Wisconsin at No. 4. Nebraska checked in at No. 8, followed by No. 11 Illinois and No. 13 Ohio State. Michigan State and Purdue were receiving votes in the final poll.

- Ten Big Ten volleyball student-athletes were selected as AVCA Division I All-Americans, with three players earning first-team status. Micha Hancock and Ali Frantti highlighted the group with AVCA DI National Player of the Year and National Freshman of the Year honors, respectively. Wisconsin's Lauren Carlini and Penn State's Nia Grant and Micha Hancock earned first-team honors, while Illinois' Jocelynn Birks, Penn State's Ali Frantti and Aiyana Whitney and Wisconsin's Taylor Morey and Courtney Thomas were named to the second team. Minnesota's Paige Tapp and Nebraska's Kadie Rolfzen earned third-team honors. Sixteen others received honorable mention recognition - Illinois' Liz McMahon, Michigan's Abby Cole, Michigan State's Rachel Minarick and Kori Moster and Chloe Reinig, Minnesota's Daly Santana, Nebraska's Kelsey Fien and Mary Poltmiller, Northwestern's Katie Dutchman, Ohio State's Elizabeth Campbell, Taylor Sandbothe and Taylor Sherwin, Purdue's Annie Drews and Val Nichol and Wisconsin's Haleigh Nelson and Dominique Thompson.

- A total of 10 league schools placed among the top 30 in the country in average volleyball attendance in 2014. Nebraska ranked first with an average 8,083 fans per match, Wisconsin was third with 4,933, while Minnesota was fifth (3,343). Illinois (3,027), Penn State (2,999) and Michigan State (2,928) claimed spots nine through 11, while Purdue rounded out the top 20 at No. 13 (2,514). Ohio State (1,811), Maryland (1,539) and Iowa (1,375) finished the year at spots 22, 25 and 29, respectively.

- The Big Ten placed five teams in the Top 30 of the NCAA's final RPI report, including four in the top 15. Wisconsin led at No. 5, followed by No. 6 Penn State, No. 10 Illinois, No. 11 Nebraska and No. 20 Ohio State. The Big Ten's five teams in the NCAA RPI top 30 ranked tied for second this year with the Big-12, behind the Pac-12's eight teams. The ACC placed four teams within the top 30, while the SEC had a total of three.

- Following the conclusion of the fall season, the Big Ten recognized a total of 977 fall sports student-athletes who had been named to the Academic All-Conference team, which included 99 volleyball players. To be eligible for Academic All-Big Ten selection, student-athletes must be letterwinners who are in at least their second academic year at their institution and carry a cumulative grade-point average of 3.0 or higher.

- Since the NCAA started sponsoring volleyball in 1981, only two teams in the country have appeared in all 34 tournaments, with Penn State and Stanford being the only two in the elite group. The Nittany Lions have compiled an overall record of 90-27 (.769) in the NCAA Tournament, including 17 trips to the NCAA regional finals, 12 trips to the NCAA semifinals (1993, 1994, 1997, 1998, 1999, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2012, 2013, 2014) and seven national championships (1999, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2013, 2014).

- In the final NCAA stats of 2014, Penn State led the nation in aces per set (1.91) and hitting percentage (.342), and ranked fourth in kills per set (14.7). Wisconsin finished the season ranked eighth in kills per set (14.34) and hitting percentage (.275). Numerous Big Ten student-athletes appeared among the top 10 of the final NCAA statistical leaders of 2014. Micha Hancock led the nation with .99 aces per set and ranked eighth with 11.61 assists per set. Minnesota's Paige Tapp ranked third with 1.55 blocks per set, while the Nittany Lions' Nia Grant ranked fourth in hitting percentage (.431).

IN THE COACHING RANKS AFTER PENN STATE

Head coach Russ Rose has produced many of the nation's top players in his 36 years at the helm of the Penn State program. However, his players and staff don't end their paths once they graduate or move away. A great number of Nittany Lion alumni have successful professional volleyball careers, and are also pursuing coaching careers at high schools, clubs and universities across the country. Below are the names of former staff members and student-athletes who have entered the coaching ranks after time at Penn State.

Katie Shumacher-Cawley, University of Illinois-Chicago

Nadia Edwards, DePaul University

In conjunction with Penn State's 50 years of Women in Sport celebration during the 2014 season, the Nittany Lions hosted the first-ever Penn State Alumni Classic. The tournament featured four opponents who were all former Nittany Lions including Eastern Illinois' former head coach Kate Price (2008), DePaul's Nadia Edwards (2001), University of Illinois-Chicago's Katie Shumacher-Cawley (2002) and East Carolina's Julie Torbett (1990).

Blair (Brown) Lipsitz

Julie Torbett, East Carolina University

The University of Buffalo announced the hiring of former four-time NCAA national champion and two-time All-American Blair (Brown) Lipsitz April 7, 2015. The 2010 Big Ten Player of the Year was a member of Penn State's national championship teams during its historic string of four straight from 2007-10. PSU is set to take on Buffalo in its 2015 season-opener under the direction of the first-year head coach.

Micha Hancock earned the AVCA DI National Player of the Year honors to become the fourth Nittany Lion in program history to receive the award.

All-American Nia Grant's .431 hitting efficiency closed out the year ranked fourth nationally and ninth on the PSU single-season record list.

Haleigh Washington earned Big Ten Freshman of the Year honors to become Penn State's 12th selection in program history.

Ali Frantti earned both AVCA Regional and National Freshman of the Year honors to become the fourth Nittany Lion to accomplish the feat.

AVCA All-Americans

Four Nittany Lions earned AVCA All-America honors in 2014, presented by the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA). Seniors Micha Hancock and Nia Grant earned spots on the first team, while redshirt junior Aiyana Whitney and Frantti were selected to the second team. Additionally, Frantti was named the AVCA DI National Freshman of the Year.

Frantti is the fourth Nittany Lion in program history to earn National Freshman of the Year honors and the first since Deja McClendon in 2010. Hancock collected her third consecutive All-America honor, while Grant earned her second straight. The selection was the first career for both Whitney and Frantti.

Hancock Named National Player of the Year

Senior setter Micha Hancock earned one of the nation's top awards in collegiate volleyball, as she was named the recipient of the 2014 AVCA DI National Player of the Year Award. Hancock is fourth Nittany Lion in program history to earn the prestigious honor, joining Megan Hodge (2009), Nicole Fawcett (2008) and Lauren Cacciamani (1999) in the group.

Rose on Top of NCAA All-Time Wins List

Following a 4-0 weekend in the Penn State Classic, Penn State head coach Russ Rose moved into first place on the active DI NCAA career wins list, 1,136 victories, ahead of Hawaii head coach Dave Shoji.

The two went back and forth throughout the season, but Penn State's run to its seventh NCAA national championship in 2014 vaulted Rose 11 wins ahead of Shoji, placing him firmly atop the active division I career standings at the conclusion of the season with 1,161 wins.

Prior to topping the list of DI winningest active coaches by victories, his .866 career winning clip has ranked first on the percentage chart for the last several years. Now at the top of both lists, he's one of just two active NCAA DI coaches to amass more than 1,100 career wins and one of four active coaches across all three divisions to join the 1,000 victories club.

On the list of winningest coaches of all time, Rose's 1,161-180 tally is unmatched at first place. Along with Shoji and former UCLA head coach Andy Banachowski, the three are the only DI coaches in NCAA women's volleyball coaching history to total 1,100 or more victories.

Re-writing the Record Books

With seven aces in the win against Siena, in the opening round of the 2014 NCAA tournament, senior Micha Hancock served her way to the top of the Big Ten single-season record book with 116 aces on the year to break the previous conference mark which was set by Minnesota's Sharon Oesterling in 1989. Hancock also closed out the season in sole possession of first place on the NCAA single-season 25-point scoring format aces list with 126 aces, which passed the record (118) originally set by Christine Edwards (Jackson State) in 2012.

On the all-time aces list, her 380 career aces ranks first in both the Penn State and Big Ten record books and is fifth in NCAA career history.

The Best Hitting Clip in the Nation

Micha Hancock directed the Nittany Lions to a .342 hitting clip, which closed out the year ranked first in the nation, while also leading the Big Ten. Hancock paced a trio of top Nittany Lion attackers to .358 or better hitting, led by Nia Grant's .431 hitting efficiency, which finished the year ranked fourth in the nation.

2014 NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball Championship

PSU Posts 38th 20+ Wins Season

Following a straight-set victory against Michigan State October 25, the Nittany Lions posted their 20th victory of the 2014 season, marking the 38th time in program history that Penn State has reached 20 wins in a season. The Nittany Lions have reached the mark every year since the inaugural women's volleyball season in 1976.

Penn State also collected its 30th victory of the season with a 3-0 win against Nebraska the regular-season finale November 29. The 30-plus plateau marks the 27th time head coach Russ Rose has guided the team to 30 or more wins in a season. PSU has won at least 30 matches in each of the last three consecutive seasons.

Welcome Back!

In conjunction with Penn State's 50 years of Women in Sport celebration during the 2014 season, all four opposing head coaches in the Penn State Alumni Classic were former Nittany Lions, including Eastern Illinois' Kate Price (2008), DePaul's Nadia Edwards (2001), University of Illinois-Chicago's Katie Shumacher-Cawley (2002) and East Carolina's Julie Torbett (1990).

Journey Through the NCAA Tournament: Highlights

With an 90-27 all-time record in the NCAA Tournament, Penn State made its 10th trip to the national title match ('93, '97, '98, '99, '07, '08, '09, '10, '13, '14) in 2014. The Nittany Lions have also totaled 12 trips to the national semifinals ('93, '94, '97, '98, '99, '07, '08, '09, '10, '12, '13, '14) and seven national championships ('99, '07, '08, '09, '10, '13, '14). Having won its sixth NCAA title in the last eight years, Penn State's seven NCAA women's volleyball crowns are the most by a single program in history.

Penn State moved to 10-2 all-time in the NCAA national semifinals with a 3-1 win against top-ranked Stanford. Since 2007, PSU has made more appearances in the national semifinals than any other program. Penn State has participated in seven of the last eight national semifinals, leading Texas by one appearance (6). Southern California (3), Stanford (2) and California (2) are the only teams in the nation to appear in the NCAA semis more than once during the span.

The Nittany Lions also extended their streak to 12 consecutive appearances in the NCAA regional semifinals following a 3-0 win against Dayton in the second round of the tournament. The 12 appearances marks the longest active streak of regional semifinal appearances in DI volleyball.

Freshmen Influence

Penn State welcomed the number one recruiting class in 2014. Regarded by PrepVolleyball.com as "a class that rivals the best ever," Penn State's incoming freshmen class featured four state Gatorade Player of the Year honorees and five newcomers who were ranked within PrepVolleyball's top 15 in the nation, with three ranked among the top three.

Six freshman have made their collegiate debuts for Penn State this season. All ranked within PrepVolleyball.com's top 10, Frantti, Lee and Washington have established themselves as solid contributors this season.

HONOLULU, Hawaii Dec. 18, 1999 – In just one hour and 20 minutes, the top-ranked Penn State women's volleyball team erased memories of five game losses in the previous two title matches by sweeping Stanford for the first NCAA volleyball national championship in school history. Penn State defeated the Cardinal, 15-2, 15-10, 15-7, in front of a sold-out crowd of 10,252 at the Stan Sheriff Center.

It was a perfect ending for the three seniors who started in the previous two title matches. Each member of the trio played one of their best matches of the year, including senior Lauren Cacciamani, who was named the Most Outstanding Player after pounding out a match-high 20 kills with eight blocks.

"We did get an opportunity to watch a lot of film and we knew that we had to come out and jump on them," Cacciamani said. "We were going to try to go out there and dictate instead of having them show us what was going to go on. We were planning on going out strong and with a lot of fight."

Seniors Bonnie Bremner and Carrie Schonveld were also named to the NCAA Championship All-Tournament team. Bremner dished out 37 assists with four kills of her own. She also hit .333 with six digs. Schonveld had nine kills to go with her team-high 10 digs. The outside hitter hit .368 on the night and also aided at the net with three blocks (1 BS, 2 BA).

The Penn State blockers created a wall that the Stanford hitters could not avoid. Fueled by Cacciamani's eight blocks, the Lions held the Cardinal to a season-low .008 hitting percentage as 1999 Co-Player of the Year Kerri Walsh zeroed out (11-11-33).

Redshirt-freshman Mishka Levy and sophomore Katie Schumacher added five blocks each—both with one solo and four assisted. Each of the six players that rotated to the front row recorded at least one block as Penn State ended the evening with 15 to Stanford's 10.5. Schumacher also added nine kills with three each from Levy and sophomore Amanda Rome.

Penn State trailed only once during the match. Down 3-1 in game two, the Nittany Lions rolled off three-consecutive points to take over the lead and never looked back. It was the first time this season the Cardinal had been swept. Penn State closed out the season with a 36-1 mark with the only loss coming in the season opener to Florida on Aug. 27.

"We didn't peak at the beginning of the season, obviously," Cacciamani said. "We lost our first match so we knew we wouldn't go undefeated. We did a good job playing as a team. We progressed and got better as the season went on."

"I think we set the stage for the win in the first game when we had 10 blocks. We had a great game plan and the players played with passion and enthusiasm right out of the chute. I believe the players are the ones that placed themselves in a position to get into this situation and I thought they handled all the distractions that normally come in a match like this as well as they possible could."

Penn State reached the NCAA national finals in two consecutive seasons (1997-98) before defeating Stanford for its first NCAA national title in 1999.

The 1999 seniors led Penn State to its first-ever NCAA Women's Volleyball title (from left) Carrie Schonveld, Leilani Schlottfeldt, Bonnie Bremner, Kalina Miller and Lauren Cacciamani. (Schlottfeldt decided to return for her final year of eligibility in 2000.)

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Dec. 15, 2007 - Top-ranked Penn State women's volleyball team captured the program's second NCAA Championship, winning a dramatic five-game final, 3-2, against No. 4 Stanford in Arco Arena. The Nittany Lions won the thriller, 30-25, 30-26, 23-20, 19-30, 15-8, posting their 26th consecutive victory since a five-game loss to the Cardinal exactly three months prior.

"It's an amazing feeling," said junior outside hitter Nicole Fawcett. "This year's team was so determined. After the fourth game we were determined to get our focus back."

After taking a 2-0 lead, Penn State saw the top-seeded Stanford rally to tie the match, 2-2. The Cardinal took a 4-3 lead in the fifth set, but the Nittany Lions scored seven consecutive points to take control at 10-4. Junior middle hitter Christa Harmotto and sophomore setter Alisha Glass each had two kills during the critical run.

Kills by Fawcett and freshman middle hitter Arielle Wilson pushed Penn State's lead to 13-7. A block by Wilson and freshman opposite Blair Brown made it 14-8. The Nittany Lions immediately seized the opportunity on their first match point, as sophomore outside hitter Megan Hodge delivered her 26th kill of the match to secure the victory.

Penn State won set one, 30-25. Stanford led 15-13, but PSU scored five consecutive points to take a 18-15 lead. The game was tied at 22-22, but Penn State took the lead for good on a service error by the Cardinal and a kill by Harmotto. A block by Fawcett made it 29-24 and she delivered the game-winning kill for the 30-25 margin.

The Nittany Lions captured set two, 30-26. Penn State took the lead for good on a Fawcett kill to make it 13-12. Another Fawcett kill made it 29-25 and a block by Glass and Harmotto gave the Lions the 30-26 win and a 2-0 lead. Penn State hit .525 in the game, while the Cardinal hit .357.

Stanford won set three, 30-23, snapping a streak of 17 consecutive winning games for the Nittany Lions in the 2007 NCAA Tournament. Penn State took its last lead at 7-6 on a block by freshman middle hitter Arielle Wilson, but the Cardinal took the lead for good at 9-8.

The national championship match was the fifth in program history for the Nittany Lions, as they also advanced in 1993, 1997, 1998 and 1999, capturing the title in 1999. Penn State defeated Stanford (15-2, 15-10, 15-7) on Dec. 18, 1999 in Honolulu, Hawaii, to give the Nittany Lions their first NCAA Championship.

The two teams met earlier in 2007 in New Haven, Conn., with Stanford outlasting Penn State in five games (30-23, 23-30, 27-30, 30-28, 15-9) on Sept. 15. The Nittany Lions had won 25 consecutive matches since the loss entering the title match.

"We're awfully excited. We're thrilled for our fans and everyone who cares about Penn State."

- Russ Rose

OMAHA, Neb., Dec. 20, 2008 – Top-ranked Penn State capped a record-setting season with its second consecutive NCAA title with a 3-0 win over No. 2 Stanford (25-20, 26-24, 25-23) at the Qwest Center in Omaha, Neb. The Nittany Lions finish the 2008 campaign with a perfect 38-0 record, only the fourth team ever in Division I women's volleyball history to finish the season with an unblemished slate.

Stanford took the 3-0 lead to start the match, but a Christa Harmotto and Blair Brown block along with two Harmotto kills helped pull Penn State within two at 6-4. The Nittany Lions trailed for much of the game, but forced two Stanford timeouts to steal the momentum. PSU went on to win the game, 25-20.

Penn State jumped out to the early lead in game two and held on to take a 2-0 lead in the match. Penn State had a 12-9 advantage midway through the frame, but a Stanford kill and block again trimmed the Lion lead to one at 12-11. The squads traded points before a Cardinal kill and block put Stanford up 14-13. Penn State kills from Blair Brown and Megan Hodge put the Lions ahead 15-14 heading into a time out. Penn State maintained the lead for the remainder of the set, but Stanford didn't let the Lions go unchallenged. A Stanford kill and a Lion attack error tied the score 24-24 before kills from Nicole Fawcett and Hodge gave PSU the set, 26-24.

A Harmotto and Brown block gave the Nittany Lions the 3-1 lead in the third game, but Stanford tied the game at 3-3. The Lions controlled the set until Stanford recorded three kills to pull within two at 23-21 forcing a Penn State time out. Out of the break, the Cardinals recorded another kill trimming the lead to one, 23-22, but Hodge responded with a cross-court kill that clipped the line to make it 24-22. Stanford recorded a kill before a Fawcett kill off the block ended the game, 25-23 giving the Nittany Lions earned their third NCAA title.

Penn State became just the sixth team in history to win back-to-back NCAA Championships, joining Hawaii (1982-83), Pacific (1985-86), UCLA (1990-91), Stanford (1996-97) and USC (2002-03). The Penn State volleyball programs also became only the third school to have its men's and women's teams capture their respective championships in the same calendar year, as the Penn State men captured their championship in May. Penn State joins UCLA (1984) and Stanford (1997) as the only programs in history to accomplish the feat. Stanford (1996-97) and Penn State (2007-08) are the only two to win both titles in the same academic year. Penn State finished the season with a 114-2 individual game record and pushed its current NCAA-record match winning streak to 64 dating back to a five-game loss to 2008 NCAA runner-up Stanford on Sept. 15, 2007.

"I don't think it was the prettiest match to determine the national championship, but it was a match that was played very hard by both teams. I thought we hung in defensively and gave ourselves opportunities and chance for Megan to take big swings at the end. I thought it was a group effort in a lot of areas. It certainly wasn't a match that had the same energy from the match a couple of nights ago. That one had the significance to get us here. Tonight's has special significance, especially for the seniors."

- Russ Rose

Penn State capped off the season with a perfect 38-0 record, making the Nittany Lions just the fourth team in DI women's volleyball history to record an unblemished slate.

Penn State recorded a .390 team hitting percentage in 2008 to mark the best NCAA DI hitting percentage all-time during the rally scoring era.

TAMPA, Fla., Dec. 19, 2009 - Top-ranked Penn State made history, becoming the first team to win three consecutive national titles with a 3-2 (22-25, 20-25, 25-23, 25-21, 15-13) come-from-behind victory against No. 2 Texas.

Senior Megan Hodge led the Nittany Lions with 21 kills, while both junior Blair Brown and freshman Darcy Dorton contributed 13 kills each. The Nittany Lions had five with double-digit digs led by junior libero Alyssa D'Errico, who posted a career-high 22.

Penn State and Texas kept it tight for most of the opening frame until the Longhorns pulled ahead, 13-11 after a PSU error and a UT kill. Penn State trailed for the next few plays until Hodge and Balza teamed up for a block and a monster kill to tie it at 14-14. UT worked up to a 17-15 lead stayed ahead courtesy of two kills and an ace. PSU came alive and rallied to tie the set at 22-22. Penn State called a timeout, but Texas closed out the set with two kills for a 25-22 win.

Texas took control in set two, jumping out to an 8-4 lead forcing the Nittany Lions to call an early timeout. Penn State managed to come within two, 10-8, but the Longhorns pulled ahead with a 7-1 run for a 17-9 lead. Penn State battled back with a 6-2 run to come within four, 23-19, but Texas rallied to take set two, 25-20.

PSU came out hot in the third set, building a six-point lead, 11-5, for its largest lead of the match. Texas didn't come closer than two as PSU took the set, 25-23.

Tied at 3-3 early in the fourth set, the Lions went on a 5-0 run to develop a five-point advantage, 8-3. UT answered back with a 9-3 run for a one-point lead, 12-11. The score tied four times before Hodge put down two consecutive kills for a 17-15 lead. A Texas timeout allowed the Longhorns to regroup and tie the set once again. Penn State maintained at least a one-point lead until a Wilson kill, a Texas error and Hodge put down after a long rally sent the match to a fifth and final set.

Texas jumped out to a 3-1 lead in set five before a Dorton kill and a Texas attack error allowed the Nittany Lions to tie it up at 3-3. The two squads traded points until UT's Adams posted a kill and a block for a 7-5 lead against the Lions. Hodge and Wilson notched one kill each to tie the set at 7-7, but Hooker posted one of her own to put UT ahead, 8-7. After a timeout, Balza and Glass registered a joint stuff to make it 8-8. Trailing by one in the fifth set, 11-10, Dorton and Wilson posted back-to-back kills for a 12-11 edge. Dorton tallied another kill before a UT attack error made it set-point Penn State. Texas held off the attempt before Hodge closed out her collegiate career with the final kill of the match for the 15-13 triumph.

"It was a very strange match. It's one of those examples where you don't win the statistics war, but we found a way to win at critical times. Certainly Texas had a great season and has a great team. We feel like we played two great teams here in the Final Four that really were great representatives of their conference and the sport of college volleyball."

- Russ Rose

With the national championship win, Penn State's winning streak increased to 102 consecutive matches, which stood for an NCAA DI record for any women's sport.

Penn State's comeback marked the third time in NCAA Tournament history a team has come from down two (and ninth time overall coming from behind) to win the title.

KANSAS CITY, MO. Dec. 18, 2010 - Fourth-seeded Penn State made history once again, sweeping California (25-20, 27-25, 25-20) for the 2010 NCAA national championship. The Nittany Lion are the first DI women's volleyball team to win four consecutive national championships in history.

The NCAA national championship title is also the fifth career for Hall of Fame Head Coach Russ Rose.

Senior Blair Brown led all student-athletes with 18 kills, while freshman Deja McClendon tallied 16 and senior Arielle Wilson posted 12. Sophomore setter Kristin Carpenter dished out 46 assists. Senior Alyssa D'Errico led the team with 13 digs, while Brown contribute 10. Freshman Katie Slay had a match-high seven total blocks.

The Nittany Lions opened the match taking a 3-1 lead, but the Bears fought back and tied it at 4-4. Back-to-back kills by Ariel Scott put PSU back on top, 6-4. Penn State maintained the lead and was leading by five, 12-7, when Cal called its first timeout. The Bears came within one, 12-11, but kills from McClendon, Brown and Wilson and a D'Errico ace moved PSU up by four, 16-12. A 3-0 Cal run had the Bears trailing by one, 16-15, but the Nittany Lions did not look back, closing out set one, 25-20.

The second frame was close from the start with neither team able to develop any momentum to take a strong lead. Tied at 17-17, a block by Brown and Slay put the Lions in the lead, 18-17. Penn State and Cal continued to trade points before a Scott kill edged PSU ahead, but Cal was right there with a kill of its own to make it 21-21. The score tied twice more before two straight Bear kills put Cal in the lead, 24-23. Following a timeout by the Nittany Lions, Brown and Wilson teamed up for a block to tie the set at 24-24. However, Cal's Carli Lloyd tallied a kill to put Cal at set-point for a second time. Penn State followed with a block by Carpenter and Slay teamed up for a block to keep it tied, 25-25. Brown pounded a kill to secure set two for Penn State, 27-25.

Penn State remained on top for most of the third set until two consecutive Cal points put the Bears within three, 18-15. The teams each registered a point each before PSU used a 4-0 run to pull ahead by seven, 23-16. Cal cut off the Penn State run with a block, but a Wilson kill put Penn State in match-point position. The Bears held Penn State to three match-points before Slay closed out the set and the match with a kill.

"We came out very strong in the first game. The second game, it was going back and forth and we were fortunate enough to win that second game, and I think that's probably where most of the momentum really came from. I thought the staff did a great job in helping devise a game plan, the kids listened well and we played hard and we were in a great position. The kids feel great. It's great for the university and the Big Ten Conference, and we're just as thrilled as we can be at this point in time."

- Russ Rose

Penn State won four consecutive national crowns, the most consecutive national titles ever for a DI volleyball squad. PSU joined just two other programs from DI I & DII as the only schools in collegiate athletics to win four straight volleyball national championships.

Penn State hit .316 in the NCAA national finals to set a new season finals hitting percentage record for the 25-point rally scoring era.

SEATTLE - Dec. 21, 2013 - No. 2 Penn State women's volleyball team (34-2) captured its sixth NCAA women's volleyball national championship in program history, rallying past No. 12 Wisconsin in four sets (25-19, 26-24, 20-25, 25-23) at KeyArena. The NCAA national championship marks the fifth title for the Nittany Lions in the last seven years.

Senior Ariel Scott fueled the offense with a match-high 21 kills, adding five digs. Senior Katie Slay also tallied double-digit kills with 14. Senior Deja McClendon rounded out the double-digit performers with 11 kills. The trio all earned spots in the NCAA All-Tournament team.

Junior Micha Hancock paced all three of her top attackers to double-digit kills, dishing out 48 assists to go along with 16 digs and three aces for a double-double to earn NCAA Tournament Most Outstanding Player honors.

The Nittany Lions maintained a narrow advantage up until the midway point in the first frame, when Wisconsin climbed within one, 16-15, following a Badger kill. Regrouping, PSU put together a 4-0 streak to move ahead by five, 20-15, forcing the Badgers to call timeout. Following the break, Wisconsin fought within four, 22-18, but PSU closed out a 25-19 win in the first set.

The Nittany Lions led by as many as six in the opening portion of the second set before the Badgers rallied to knot the frame, 15-15. Penn State and Wisconsin battled back-and-forth for the remainder of the set, until the Badgers used a late 3-1 spurt to make it 24-23. A service error tied the stanza, 24-all, but Scott answered with two consecutive kills to lock up a 26-24 win in the second set.

Penn State came out of the break firing, using a 5-1 streak for an early lead. Wisconsin quickly erased the advantage, using a 4-0 run to knot the frame, 5-5. UW and PSU tied up the stanza three more times before the Nittany Lions used a 3-1 strike to crack open an 8-8 tie, moving up by two, 10-8.

With Penn State unable to sustain the momentum in set three, the Badgers took the frame 25-20 to force a fourth set.

Tied at 13-13 in the fourth, a kill from Scott and a block from Slay and Courtney kept the Nittany Lions on top, 15-13. Unable to shake the Badgers, Wisconsin and PSU continued to fight point-for-point until UW broke open an 18-all tie with a 4-1 streak to move ahead by three, 22-19. Hanging on, Penn State answered with a 4-1 run to tie the score, 23-23. A clutch ace from Hancock and a kill from McClendon finished off a 25-23 win for the victory.

"I thought it was a great match and all three times that we played Wisconsin this year was a battle. They play great defense. They play really hard. They're passionate kids, and I want to applaud the University of Wisconsin, their staff, as well as Washington."

- Russ Rose

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. - Dec. 20, 2014 - Fifth-seeded Penn State swept past BYU in straight sets (25-21, 26-24, 25-14) at Chesapeake Arena to capture its seventh NCAA national championship in program history. Claiming the title in six of the last eight years, the Nittany Lions now have more national championship than any other women's volleyball program in history.

Redshirt junior Aiyana Whitney and junior Megan Courtney led the offense with 11 kills each. Courtney added 14 digs for her second consecutive double-double performance, while also leading the blocking unit with five blocks. Senior Micha Hancock paced the team to a .233 hitting clip, dishing out 36 assists. Both Hancock and Frantti earned NCAA Tournament All-Tournament team honors while Courtney was named the Most Outstanding Player.

Leading by four at the midway point in set one, 15-11, the Nittany Lions came out of the break with a block to widen the margin to five, 16-11. The Cougars chipped away at the lead with a 6-3 run to arrive within two, 19-17. A kill from Grant and a BYU attack error brought PSU back up by four, 21-17. A PSU attack error out of a timeout made it 21-18, but Penn State followed with a 3-1 spurt to arrive at set point, 24-18. BYU held off two attempts before Courtney put down a kill to secure a 25-21 win in the first set.

Leading by one, 3-2, in set two, a trio of kills from the Cougars lifted BYU ahead, 5-3. The Nittany Lions responded with a kill from Whitney and an ace from Grant to knot the stanza, 5-5. Penn State and BYU continued to keep it close, until the Cougars pulled away from a 7-7 tie with a 5-1 stretch to go up by four, 12-8, prompting PSU to call a timeout.

Penn State could not find momentum out of the break as BYU managed to maintain at least a two-point lead throughout the second half of the frame. Down by two, 19-17, PSU rallied with a 3-1 strike to tie the score, 20-20, causing the Cougars to take a timeout. PSU and BYU continued to battle point-for-point, until a kill from Whitney broke open a 23-23 tie to put Penn State at set point, 24-23. The Cougars held off two attempts before Hancock and Washington posted up for a block to lock up set two, 26-24.

Holding on to a slim lead, 4-2, in set three, Penn State used a 3-2 stretch to widen the margin to three, 7-4, causing BYU to call a timeout. The Cougars came out of the break with a kill, but Penn State responded with a 6-3 streak capped off with an ace from Hancock to make it 13-7. Penn State continued to roll, using an 8-2 streak to push the lead to well into double digits, 20-9. BYU looked to halt the momentum with a kill, 20-10, but Penn State cruised to a 25-14 win in the third set with a 5-4 stretch to complete the sweep.

"I thought we had a great game plan. I thought the players worked really hard at executing it, and we feel great about tonight's result."

- Russ Rose

Penn State's seventh NCAA national championship gives the Nittany Lions more DI women's volleyball titles than any other program, leading Stanford by one (6).

Penn State's straight set victory against BYU marked the third time in program history PSU has swept its national final opponent. The Nittany Lions have also not lost an NCAA title match since 1998.

For the first time in 46 regular season matches, the Lions lose an individual set in a 3-1 win against Iowa.

PSU ties John Wooden's UCLA men's basketball winning streak with their 88th straight victory.

No one sitting in Rec Hall on Sept. 21, 2007, watching the Nittany Lions defeating Michigan State, would have thought they were witnessing the beginning of a historical streak.

The winning streak stands alone in Division I women's volleyball. It ranks second in NCAA history among organized sports, second only to the Miami men's tennis team's 137-match winning streak from 1957-64. The record-breaking span of victories lasted more than 35 months, encompassing an NCAA record 111 wins in straight sets across 1,085 days.

Almost three years to the day the streak began, it comes to an end after a 3-0 loss to Stanford, the same team which sparked the record-breaking stretch in 2007.

NITTANY LIONS ABROAD ...

Women's volleyball head coach Russ Rose has opened several cultural opportunities for his student-athletes, as the Nittany Lions have embarked on four foreign trips to five different countries in the last 15 years.

In 2005, Penn State took its first trip abroad, as the Nittany Lions officially became the first collegiate athletic team from the United States to be invited to play in Cuba. The Nittany Lions played Cuba's Junior National Team as well as a squad of former National Team players.

May 10, 2005:

Dobrodošli ("welcome") to the Penn State Volleyball European tour 2005! Today was our first full day here and we have already done so much! Staying in the scenic city of Izola, we are pretty immersed in Slovenian culture. It's been drizzling a bit but we are staying right on the harbor of the Adriatic coast in the Hotel Marina and it is absolutely gorgeous. The brightly-colored buildings, green mountains and crystal clear sea make everything seem sunny. There is not a whole lot of English spoken here, so we stick out a lil' bit. The people have been pretty nice for the most part though, and we've managed to learn a bit of Slovenian: please = "prosim," thank you = "hvala," how much = "koliko" and "bela kava brez kofeina" = decaff cafe latte... I've already used that one about four times. All the girls are having a great time. We practiced last night after we got in and then played our first match today against a club team from Croatia. They were pretty young so we won all five games easily. We travel to the capital city of Ljubljana tomorrow to play another match and see the sites. We will leave early in the morning to tour the city and then play in the afternoon. Tim and Jo from Bring It USA have really planned out a great trip for us. All the girls are really excited and the parents and boosters are having a good time too... with a few exceptions. So far the Naylors lost their luggage and got locked out of their room, the Janias tried to use a $1USD in an Italian Coke machine and then got their debit card chopped up in Izola, and Mrs. Holm tried to play matchmaker with the manager of a Slovenian pizzeria (which would be alright if the service wasn't so sub-par). So, to sum up... everyone is over their jet lag, we're loving Slovenia, and can't wait to get some more competition under our belts as we continue to travel the world! Ciao!

- Kim Holm and the Penn State Women's Volleyball team

May 11, 2005:

Ciao! Greetings from Slovenia. We started off this morning with a European breakfast at The Hotel Marina and then headed off to spend the day in Ljubljana, the capital of Slovenia. Upon arrival, we went to the tourist information center and got brochures of the entire city followed by a train ride to the medieval Ljubljana Castle. The castle is a fine feature of the city and nowadays it is a popular tourist spot. After the train ride back into the city square, we split up for a day of site seeing and fun. Our next step was a bus ride to our match. We played five games against a team called Nova Gorica, winning four of the five games. The match was very lively with a few face shots and a lot of cheering. The owner of the gym we played in also owned a restaurant nearby and he invited us to enjoy his five course cuisine. The food and atmosphere was amazing and the team, coaches, parents, and boosters all had a fabulous time. Tomorrow we leave Slovenia and are off to Venice, Italy.

May 12, 2005:

Today we finally woke up to the blue skies of Slovenia, only to say goodbye as we loaded the bus to continue on to Venice, Italy. After the bus ride we laced up our sneakers, stole the nearest "Vaporetto" (a motorboat used as a canal bus in Venice) and raced to the city - it was all Sam's ideal! (Okay, so maybe the dramatic entrance is a slight exaggeration, but you know how girls can be.) After we docked near Piazza San Marco, the real adventures began. We had the entire day to absorb the city, and that we did. These are some of the interesting things I learned today:

1.) Imagine literally stepping into a world unlike anything you have ever seen. Imagine walking through massive crowds of people all speaking different languages. Now imagine seeing absolutely breathtaking architecture and scenery all around you. And finally, imagine 14 young American women (plus one Canadian) gracefully dodging hundreds of swooping pigeons while trying to take it all in at once. Thankfully, we all have cat-like reflexes and nobody was seriously injured.

2.) It's true what they say - Italian men really aren't afraid to sweep a woman off her feet! Maggie, Ashley Fidler, Melissa and I ate a delicious meal along the Grand Canal and as we were thanking the waiters and saying goodbye, the chef came from behind the counter, pinched my cheeks and picked me up in the middle of the restaurant! I am 6-5 ... he was probably 5-7 ... you do the math! Today marks the first time any man has dared to accomplish what he did. Sorprendente! (Amazing!)

On a more serious note, today was a perfect example of why we are so thankful to be in Italy doing what we love, and we are thankful to be sharing it with some of the people who helped make it possible. We were all able to see Venice through our own eyes and learned a lot about the culture and history. We split up into different groups and spent the day shopping and exploring all the city has to offer. It was a beautiful day in Venice, but there is still work to be done! We left the sinking city behind and drove to Pordenone, where we will play the local team tomorrow night. Kim and Kaleena have been playing very well, so tomorrow will be a good opportunity for some new faces to step up and contribute! We will keep you posted, but until next time, there is volleyball to be played and more dessert to be eaten! CIAO!

May 13, 2005:

Boun Giorno fellow Americans (Good morning fellow Americans!). We spent day six in Pordenone. After breakfast most of us enjoyed the downtown shopping of the city. This city was most like the cities that we are used to in the United States. There are more cars and traffic here than in the previous places we have been. Small boutiques lined the streets with an occasional department store. In the afternoon we ventured to the Villa Manin, which is a palace of the former Doge. The enormous structure and beautiful architecture were overwhelming. Unique art lined the walls of one of the sections of the castle, while other sections displayed old weaponry and carriages. The chapel was detailed in elegant artwork. We did not have the opportunity to view the actual rooms of the castle because of restoration, but we were told that Napoleon had slept there and that his room was preserved. From the castle we came back to the hotel to enjoy the traditional Italian pregame meal, which was actually breakfast. This included cereal, fruit, yogurt, and various pastries. On the way to the gym our tour guides indulged us with the translations of a local newspaper article that was about the team being in the town. The article was informative and contained a picture of us receiving our Big Ten trophy. The match was held at a nearby town owned gym. We won four out of the five games that we played against Pallavolo Pordenone in front of a very lively crowd. The match was the most competitive one since we have been here and was fun to play in. After we played, we ate dinner (at 10:30 at night). It is custom to eat pasta as an appetizer, but we did not know this before so most of us ate it as a meal. Little did we know that we were also having meat, fries, salad, and dessert! It was a great ending to a wonderful day! Arrivederci (goodbye)!!

May 14, 2005:

Ciao fellow Americans and Canadians,

Well, our arrival into Pesaro came on our official graduation day, had we been in State College. So, as our final college project, here is our journal entry! On the bus yesterday, driving from Pordenone to Pesaro, we had to present our research on the Marche region to everyone on the bus, complete with our graduation caps!

We are planning on spending three days total in this region, the first two in Pesaro, and the third in Comunanza. The region is pronounced "lay markay," and in English, it translates to "the Marches." The region lies on the eastern seaboard in central Italy, bordered by the Adriatic Sea to the east, and the Apennine mountains to the central part of the country. Pesaro is the capital city of this province, and is a bustling seaside resort town. Fortunately, we're here before most of the tourist season begins, so we've had the town all to ourselves!

When we arrived to our beach front hotel yesterday, we all ate lunch together, before we had a bit of down time last night. A few of us had the opportunity to accompany Coach Rose and Tim Kelly (in charge of our tour, he runs Bring It USA) to a professional women's volleyball match in a small town about 1.5 hours away from here. The gymnasium was full of enthusiastic and loud spectators, and it was a lot of fun! It was a match between the 2nd and 3rd place teams in the A2 division of the Italian professional league, with the winner of this match having the opportunity to move up to the A1 league next year. Wiz Bachman, former UCLA standout, was playing for the team that ended up losing in four games.

Today we had some free time to take in the sites of Pesaro, which is the hometown of famed opera composer, Gioachino Rossini. This evening we had a chance to play our fourth match, against a team from Gabiche, Italy, about 15 minutes from Pesaro. We won the four games we played in the match, and every member of the team had a chance to play. Tomorrow we'll have a chance to go to an Italian Catholic mass if we want, before getting back on the road and heading over to Comunanza. From what we've heard so far, it's a small mountain town, about three blocks long and one block wide. We'll be there only one night, and the gentleman who runs the hotel/restaurant where we'll be staying is so excited to host all of us! People drive from miles around to eat at his restaurant, so we're looking forward to tasting the food for ourselves!! We have two matches left on this trip, one tomorrow night in Comunanza, and the last in Rome on Tuesday night. Buonasera from Italy!

After winding through the Italian hillsides, our team arrived in the town of Comunanza. The town was small with a population of around 3,000 people. We stayed where executives generally stayed when they would visit the major factory just outside of the town. It was very nice place to stay as five of the girls got to stay in a 3-bedroom apartment that had two bathrooms and a dining room. Once we got settled in our rooms the team got on our jerseys and walked to the gym. We played a club team from Amandola. Their team was short a few players so Ashley Fidler volunteered to play with the other team. We won the match in 3 games, while Kris Brown and Kaleena even got a chance to play front row. That night we had what most of the team considered our best meal of the trip. It was a traditional Italian family meal with multiple courses and elaborate dishes. One of the first dishes we ate was intestine and eggs. It was a long meal that lasted late into the night. The next morning we were off to begin our long drive to Rome. We wove through the mountains and hills on roads that you wouldn't think buses could travel.

After nearly a five-hour trip we finally arrived in Rome, the 'eternal city.' We checked into the hotel and were immediately off to the Metro station just a few blocks away. The Metro is very small and crowded because the designers of the Metro wanted to avoid digging railways under ancient Roman architecture. Our first stop took us to see the Spanish Steps, which was a series of three levels of steps leading up to a church. The lining of the steps was covered in flowers and it was a great place to take a team picture. Our next stop was the Trevi Fountain. This was the first elaborate sculpture work we saw in Rome and we were in awe. It is said that you must throw a coin into the fountain but you must throw the coin with your back facing the fountain. The number of coins you throw also determines your fortune. One coin and you'll return to Rome, two coins and you'll fall in love. With our backs facing the fountain, Maggie, Cassidy, Fidler, and I threw in two coins each.

Our last stop of the day was to visit the Pantheon. As we walked inside we were amazed by the massive pillars holding the structure up. They lead us into a large circular dome with more sculptures and a roof with a giant circular hole allowing sunlight to pour inside. The basement of the building is also a resting place for people such as Raffaello a famous painter, Voltaire a philosopher, Murrie and Pierre Currie both famous scientists as well as Victor Hugo the first president of unified Italy. After seeing the Pantheon we were all tired and grabbed some dinner, found the Metro and went back to our hotel.

Today we got up and again took the Metro to see the Coliseum. I stepped out of the station and all I could see was the building. The structure was built between 12AD and 80AD and most of it still remains standing today. When it was first built it was called the Amphitheatre Flavium, and held up to 50,000 people. It was used to hold battles between animals and humans along with chariot races and mock naval battles. The rest of the day we were able to tour around and explore the city of Rome. Other sites we saw included the Forum, the Arch of Constantine, and the Monument of Vittoriale. All of the sites were unique and amazing in their own respect. It was odd to see such monuments scattered amongst current shops and restaurants including McDonalds.

Tonight we played our sixth and final match in a town of U saro, which is 30 minutes to an hour away from Rome depending on traffic. We played one of our more competitive matches against a club team called As Fidia Ladispoli. We won all five games although it was a bittersweet victory. It was the last time our three seniors, Tab, Syndie and Ashley would play in their PSU uniforms. The club team had ordered pizza for us and we shared it with them before getting on the bus and heading back to Rome.

Tomorrow is our last full day. We are going to see the Vatican City in the morning and the Pope may be speaking. The trip is almost over and it is going very fast but I'm very excited to get up tomorrow and see the Sistine Chapel.

May 10, 2009:

Greetings from Sao Paulo!

Today was the first day we spent in Sao Paulo, and boy was it eventful! We began the day enjoying a nice complimentary breakfast from the hotel and then all jumped into our awesome two-story bus to head into town. We toured the very interesting and historical city of Sao Paulo with our wonderful tour guide Morris (at least I think that is how you spell his name =). He taught us many, many things about the city and a few things stood out to me in the outing. First, Sao Paulo specifically is famous for its graffiti. The artists take much pride their artwork while creating competitions with other artists around the city to see who can create the most difficult piece of work. Second, if women around the city want to get married, they must pray to St. Anthony so that he will help them find a husband. (As soon as I learned this, I held a small prayer session with a few of my teammates).

After several hours of touring the city, we stopped at the Estadio Municipal to buy tickets to the professional soccer game. The Corinthians, or the home team, is the professional team that Cristiano Ronaldo plays for, so we were all very excited to have the opportunity to see him play! After buying our tickets, we took a quick trip down to a market place where we shopped for an hour or so and then ate an incredible lunch. The food, as we have all discovered, is incredible and it is so much fun to try all of these new dishes and experience all the new tastes (especially this drink they call Guarana, it is simply delicious!).

After lunch, we drove back to the stadium two hours before the game started to enjoy the pregame festivities. In one corner of the stadium, the away team was banging their drums and screaming their teams' anthem. In the other corner, and scattered all over the stadium, the Corinthian fans, dressed in black and white, were stomping and yelling at the fans dressed in red and green. There were policia stationed all around the fence separating us from the field to prevent any sort of fights that might erupt during the match if the game was to get close. It was one of the most invigorating and exciting things I've ever experienced. I know that we have some of the most dedicated fans in the country, but the way these fans supported their team was just incredible.

The game began and the screaming continued. The away team scored the first goal, which completely infuriated all of the Corinthian fans. We weren't able to watch the entire game because after sitting in the stands for four hours we all became incredibly hungry and exhausted. We drove to a local pizza parlor which turned out to be quite the adventure. They brought many different types of pizza out for each of us to try, (it would take way too long for me to try and list them all!) but by far the best part of the meal, were the three different dessert pizzas they brought out at the end; one had bananas and this cinnamon spread on it, one had strawberries and dark chocolate and the last one had chocolate and shredded coconut. Absolutely delicious!! Well we finally made it back to the hotel after an incredibly long day and it's time I get to bed! Boa Noite

May 11, 2009:

Today was our first day of playing and I think everyone was anxious to see the different style of play here. We started off the morning with the complimentary breakfast downstairs of the hotel where there were delicious pastries and fruit. We got on our awesome, two story bus and took off to practice. When we arrived at the practice facility, we were in awe of its beauty. There were big beautiful trees everywhere surrounding this huge sports facility. But the first thing we all noticed was the gigantic water slide that we all wanted to go down. When we got in to the gym where we practiced, we all put on our shoes and kneepads and did our normal warm up. While we were waiting for the balls to come, we did some blocking and digging stuff. Then Coach had us circle up while Jess and Tice had a pretty bad wrestling match....no one won. The balls finally arrived and we got to adapt to the balls that they use here.

After practice, we got to tour the facility. The facility used to be owned by a bank that sponsored teams but now is more of a country club. Lunch came after the tour and we went to a place where there was more meat, of course. It was a small buffet style with salad, sausage, fries, chicken and other things. They brought meat around the tables and everyone's drink of choice still seems to be Guarana. Right after lunch we went to our match.

We arrived at the facility and immediately started to warm up. We split the court with the team during hitting lines. The club team had girls from the ages of 17 to 21 and they were pretty athletic. We played four games with them and won all four. After we played, we exchanged t-shirts with them and then took a group picture.

This was another fun day filled with new experiences!

May 12, 2009:

The morning started out at the hotel, with the usual complimentary breakfast, in which many of us have become accustomed to grapes (thin French style pancake). You can either add delicious jelly type topping or chocolate, both team favorites. Everyone dressed in the casual Brazilian type attire of shorts and tank tops ready for another adventurous day. The plan for the afternoon was a tour of a different part of the city of Sao Paulo; also known as the shopping district, stop by a well-known park for lunch and a little walking around.

First of all, I must say, people down here drive CRAZY. They don't use turn signals and just weave in and out of lanes, not to mention the motorcycles that just drive up the center of the lane recklessly. It is an incredible sight to see, so forgive me if I forget different things about today, I got distracted watching the cars fly back and forth. So now to the good stuff, we started with a tour of the scenery on the way to this famous shopping street. We drove around beautiful estates of once famous people, hospitals and gorgeous malls. Among the other sites we drove past, was the Sao Paulo futbol club, another soccer stadium of a pro team in Sao Paulo.

After all this driving we stopped at our first destination, the luxurious shopping strip where we recognized many names such as LaCoste, Adidas, Nike, Timberland, and Tommy Hilfiger. One name we did not recognize but were informed of prior to our adventure was the Havaianas, the most famous rubber flip-flops that originated from Brazil. Many of us bought pairs for family as well as friends and ourselves. Unfortunately as well as fortunately, we were limited to half an hour of wandering along this strip (saving many of us lots of Reais).

The next stop was the beautiful park called Ibirapuera Park. It is four miles by four miles along the exterior borders and is full of green grass, ponds, bridges and restaurants. Unfortunately we were as a whole pretty worn out and didn't get the chance to explore more of the park after our delicious buffet style lunch. Clara (AD, our tour guide's, seven year old niece) has been teaching us Portuguese in exchange for English and sign language, thanks to Tice and Alisha. So of course, at lunch, we were asking the vocabulary queen about lettuce, ice cream and all other sorts of food on the table. After we finished lunch, (no caffeine) Christa and I enjoyed a small (maybe a half cup) of the ever so popular café and well, we were bouncing off the walls with energy for a bit. After we left the outdoor restaurant we walked to a bridge that oversaw a small pond with tons of fish in it (we were told were served them at the restaurant we ate at). We took pictures of the horizon behind us, which happened to be a cityscape of Sao Paulo. Shortly after visiting the near by bridge we walked to the bus and headed back to our hotel for a little nap before the match ahead of us that night.

We left the hotel at 5 p.m. for our match that began at 7 p.m. We arrived at the match SUPER early and proceeded to warm up for an hour and half (because it was a real match). As we all warmed up it was very strange to see a Penn State jersey on everyone for another match together. As the match started in a somewhat small gym at Unitalo, the fans packed it in and the noise was overpowering. The first game we came out a bit slow and went back and forth with the other team until we finally pulled out the close 29-27 win. Did I mention we played by international rules so some things were different. For instance I couldn't serve and no back row subs could enter more than once. We came out a bit stronger at the start of the second game and ended up winning 25-18.

After the match we exchanged shirts with some of the Unitalo players and we then hopped on the bus, took a short bus ride to another buffet style, meat serving restaurant, in which they bring the meat to the table and you say nao obrigada or sim obrigada (no thank you or yes thank you). We met a magician who had the best card tricks I have ever seen; in fact I am still stunned. Hope you enjoyed the day vicariously through me.

May 13, 2009:

Today we woke up at 7:30 a.m. to play the semi-pro team, it was a mix of 18 to 25 years old women. We went 3-0 (25-23 25-21 25-23) and then decided to play another game and lost 22-25. All and all we went 3-1 and they were a pretty good team. Once we finished playing, we went straight to the mall to shop. It was a shopping center that was over four levels with about 400 stores, many of us ate at McDonald's, Burger King and Pizza Hut, but a few of us ventured away and ate the local food. I personally ate at Burger King. I needed a break. After spending four hours in the mall we then traveled to the airport where we had to leave our awesome bus driver and amazing tour guide. We got to the airport a little earlier than expected because we were all pooped from shopping that we showed up an hour early to leave the shopping center. We boarded the plane for Rio and it was a quick trip, like State College to Philly. Once we landed we grabbed our bags and were headed to dinner. Once again it was buffet style, but I feel like we have all tried everything at this point so there wasn't much pigging out. After dinner it was back to the hotel and a new twist on things, three people in a room, so it will be interesting trying to get ready in the morning. Tonight we are going out to talk with one on the Brazilian national players, Celine.

May 14, 2009:

After an amazing first night in Rio de Janeiro, we began our journey of sightseeing around 9:30 am. The first thing we did was visit to the largest metropolitan forest of them all. This forest is found on Corco Vado, which is a huge mountain. On top of this mountain is a famous statue, which stands 30 meters high, called The Christ Redeemer. The statue was built in 1931 and it overlooks this gorgeous city. In order to get to this enormous statue we had to take a train up to the very top of the mountain. The ride was not long but very relaxing. There were guys on the very first cart who were playing music and dancing. They were doing it for money and because it was something they seemed to enjoy doing.

When arrived to the top we got off the train and continued our journey toward The Christ Redeemer. If you decided to walk to the statue you had 250 flights of stairs to get there. But, if you waited in the long line for the elevator it would take you the 10 flights to get to the top. Most of us decided to enjoy the experience and take the stairs. On the way up was the most amazing view I and everyone else had seen since we arrived in Brazil. We were not only at the very top of this huge mountain, but we were overlooking the beautiful scenery of Rio de Janeiro. You better believe that tons of photos were taken of The Redeemer and of everyone's smiling faces.

After a breathtaking adventure at the top of this mountain we headed back down by train and loaded the bus. We were headed to lunch at noon and of course it was buffet-style eating. By 1:30 p.m. we were on our way back to the lovely hotel. We got back to the hotel at about 2 p.m. and we all decided to make our way to the beach. We changed out of our clothes and were on our way to get some sun. The beach is directly in front of our hotel so we walked over as a group, set up our chairs and towels and enjoyed the people, sun, and the pretty scenery. We ended up leaving around 4 p.m. and headed back to the hotel to get ready for dinner.

Dinner began at 7 p.m. We all cleaned up very nicely and loaded the bus. We arrived at a pizza place, where they had all types of pizzas - shrimp, meat lovers, veggie, mushroom and Brazilian sausage. For dessert we had chocolate covered with strawberries, chocolate covered with M&M's, banana covered with cinnamon all laid on thin crust. As you can imagine dinner was very fulfilling!

After dinner, we attended this amazing Brazilian show, by the name of Plata Forma. The show was interesting and entertaining. There was a lot of good Brazilian music and dancing by men and women. It reminded me of Las Vegas because of how colorful all the costumes were and boy did they sure know how to move!!

May 16, 2009:

It was a sad and rainy morning when we had to leave Rio. So far it was our favorite city, and we weren't sure it could get much better. We made the long bus trip to Saquarema. The bus was filled with sleepers and movie watchers. Jenna, our trainer, was on a mission to watch She's The Man. For those of you that aren't familiar with this movie, it's a youthful comedy where Amanda Bynes pretends to be her brother at his new school for two weeks while he's away in London. She tries to prove herself as a men's soccer player and falls for her roommate/teammate in the process. Needless to say, Coach was not thrilled about the selection and running as punishment was mentioned several times!

We sat down to a late lunch and then the afternoon was left to our own choice of beach exploring, relaxing in the courtyard, napping, or getting on the computer to keep in touch with the rest of the world. I sit in my room which is located right next to the pool and entrance to the beach where I can hear waves crashing and Brazilian music playing in the background, and I wonder how I could possibly feel more at ease. Moments like this make you realize how much of an opportunity this whole trip is. A thank you goes out to everyone who's had their hand in making it possible because experiencing this country the way that we have, meeting the people we've met, and sharing it with each other is something that we'll never forget.

Next we traveled to the training center. There weren't a lot of fans, but then again the gym wasn't really made to hold people as much as it was made to be set up for practice and training. From hitting warm ups you could tell that this team was an excitable bunch. They were young, fresh, and excited to finally be playing someone as opposed to training everyday. We squeaked out a win in game one not playing our best. Not playing our best turned to not playing well at all in the next two games. We would get small leads and a missed serve, errors on our part, or a really bad call to their advantage would allow them to catch up, take the lead, and win those games. We came back to win the fourth, not wanting to let them think we didn't come to play. A fifth and final game was played and we got down right off the bat just like in our Nebraska match. We were able to draw on that experience and make plays at the net and in the back-row to keep us in it. We eventually fought back for the win. We headed back to our hotel for a night of dinner, enjoying each other's company, and peaceful sleep. Signing off from Brazil...

I'm going to start this off a little differently today and begin by thanking everyone that made this trip possible.

I cannot express the gratitude we feel in being able to experience such a beautiful and kind culture that enables us to play the sport we love and find great competition (and great people to play against). To be able to spend this time with my teammates, coaches and members of the booster family only enhanced our adventures further and I could not have asked for a better group of people to join me in this great experience. This trip has been the chance of a lifetime, unforgettable and unbelievable, truly a dream come true for all those involved.

As gorgeous as Buzios was immediately, we only got a small taste of its beauty during our first night here. Today, we walked (everything is extremely convenient and in walking distance) to the pier to take a boat tour around the islands surrounding Buzios. Within minutes of boarding the boat it was a crowd favorite; the view was absolutely breathtaking in every direction. We continued to gasp at the sights of the mountains in the background and bask in the sunlight until we hit the next island. Closer to land than the previous stop, we decided to get a short workout in by swimming to the island. Five minutes later we all washed up on shore (a little worse for the wear), took the island by storm and claimed it as our own with pictures as proof. A few of the girls also snorkeled and saw "tropical fish" in the shallows. Needless to say, once the boat returned to the pier we were all trying to convince the captain to "accidentally" miss his mark with the rope so we could go on another loop around Buzios.

For dinner, we all found another buffet with an excellent assortment of fresh meats, made to order pastas, salads, fruits and even pizza. We sufficiently stuffed ourselves until we were ready for another night of shopping downtown for different Brazilian knick knacks to bring back for our loved ones (no spoilers!). We also found a place that made the largest chocolate crepes I have ever seen and everyone gathered around to try them out. I would highly recommend a chocolate crepe from Buzios if you ever find yourself here.

Now, sitting in the hotel after a long night of wandering from shop to shop, the girls sit around on their computers talking to parents or friends and challenge some of the coaches and boosters to card games. With only two days left in Brazil, everyone is starting to realize that this dream of a vacation is actually coming to an end. The experiences we have had the blessing to be a part of are once in a lifetime, and the opportunity to interact with such an incredible culture and see a beautiful part of the world was unimaginable. We cannot thank you enough.

May 21, 2009:

The end of the trip has finally come! We all woke up sporadically on Thursday and had a pretty laid back morning. It was very overcast, so most of us headed into downtown to do some last minute personal shopping, gift buying, and getting rid of any Brazilian money we had left burning holes in our pockets. A few of us treated ourselves to manicures and pedicures, and Katie took the risk of getting her hair cut from someone who didn't speak a word of English (but don't worry, it turned out great).

We met up for lunch at Boom, the same restaurant we ate lunch at our first afternoon in Buzios. The food (and more importantly the desserts) were just as fantastic as last time. After a quick lunch, we all headed back to the hotel to take a stab at packing all of our new and old belongings up one last time.

It was tough, but just about all of us managed to shove our clothes and gifts into our suitcases (with the exception of Heather's rain stick and Jess's hammock). After stuffing everything into the bus, we started our bumpy trip back to Rio.

For dinner, some of us experienced Bob's Burgers for the first time, which is the burger chain created in Brazil by an American in the absence of McDonald's back in the early 1900's. At the gate, we parted with Nestor, our faithful tour guide. Nestor was a great addition to the trip as well, and we all appreciated his help and his insight into the Brazilian culture. There was plenty of time to kick back in the airport terminal while we awaited our flight. Once we boarded the plane, it was time to settle in and sleep our way back to the New York City.

This was such an incredible experience for every one of us. I don't think we can even begin to thank the Boosters and everyone who helped make all of this possible. Nothing can compare to the volleyball experience we got here and all the memorable times we had!

May 20, 2009:

Today has been a very relaxing day. All of us girls woke up around 9:15 for breakfast and then left the hotel for the beach. On the way there, we got easily distracted and stopped in several shops along the way. Then, we went to a beach that was about a 15 minute walk from the hotel. It was a small, nice beach with a few restaurants right on the beach. After a couple hours of catching some rays we decided we better leave to make it to lunch on time.

Tonight we ate our last pizza dinner. Pizza has been one of the favorite meals here in Brazil, mainly because of the amazing desert pizzas they make here. It was a great last dinner to have in Brazil.

After dinner we all headed to one of our favorite places that makes delicious crepes (as if we didn't already have enough desert). All of us ordered different ones from banana and chocolate to ice cream and chocolate. This place is very fun because not only is there great dessert, but there is a DJ playing music, and there are ping pong tables and bean bags to sit in around some tables. It seemed as though Penn State had taken over the place because every where you looked, you would see someone from our group. After that, everyone headed back to the hotel to hang out before bed.

This trip has been a dream come true. There have been many times during this trip that I have talked with some of the girls and we discuss how lucky we are to have as much support as we have and been given an opportunity to broaden our horizons by experiencing another culture as beautiful as Brazil's. I will never forget this trip and how much fun I have been able to have with all my best friends.

May 10, 2013: Hello from Slovenia!

Today, we played the Croatian National Team in Maribor, Slovenia and tied 2-2. The first game started off a little rocky, but maybe it was just nerves that got us at first. The second set, we gained a bit of confidence and proceeded to win into the fourth set. Unfortunately, we didn't win the fourth set, which definitely lit a fire under us to play them tomorrow. I feel we have the confidence to play better tomorrow in our next match against them because we know that we're capable.

After the match, we took quick showers and headed to dinner where we had a buffet of meats, salad, fries, and other native Slovenian foods. It was delicious! In order to get to dinner, we had to ride a gondola up and down this huge mountain—although it was a great view, I was pretty horrified, but definitely enjoyed the new experience after looking back at it all. Following dinner, we went on a little adventure to explore what was on top of the mountain. We came in contact with a spa and a creepy old-school church that looked like it hadn't been touched in years.

After all of the food, games, and exploring, we all headed back down the mountain via gondola (I wasn't as scared this time because it was dark) and went to the Drača Hotel to get gelato—that was pure happiness. Now, it's time to head to bed and get ready for all the activities to come tomorrow.

Our first morning in Slovenia was a really exciting one! We started off with a team breakfast at 7:30 in the morning, then we had a practice—working on some serving and passing. After practice we all headed back to our apartments and got changed and headed up the mountain for a team challenge on a rope course. We all arrived at the bottom of the ski lift and got on the lift to go up the mountain to the course. The view from the lift and on top of the mountain overlooking Maribor was incredible! You could see all the city and the rest of the Pohorje mountain range from the top. Then the first thing we did was get in our harnesses and ready to go on the ropes! One thing we did was climb to the top of this telephone pole one at a time—it was really high!!

Then we had to stand on top of the pole and turn around and jump and our teammates would catch us (by pulling ropes on our harnesses). It was really scary and cool at the same time. Another thing we did was a giant swing thing (kind of) off the side of the mountain! It was scary, because we swung out over the trees. Which, interesting fact, Slovenia is home to over 400 brown bears...luckily we didn't see any in the forest. We had a nice lunch on the mountain then we got to take the alpine slide down. The alpine slide was like a one-man roller coaster down the side of the mountain. It was so much fun, you could get up to 25MPH! After that we had a little time to ourselves to catch up on some sleep before the match. This trip has been amazing so far. We have got to see and do so many terrific things here. I want to thank all of you boosters for making this happen. This is a trip I will always remember fondly.

May 9, 2013 Hello to All!

I hope everyone is well back in the states. We're continuing on our great Europe adventure today as we arrived in Maribor. It is beautiful here, but slightly in the middle of nowhere. There is a training center right next to what appears to be a ski resort. There are beautiful mountains all around us and the sunset was breathtaking. When we arrived today we got off the bus, and we went straight into practice. The facilities are new and in great condition. We're happy to be in a beautiful place that has free wifi so we can talk to everyone back in the states. Hi mom and dad!

Earlier today we had a chance to sightsee around Vienna. It is absolutely my favorite place I've ever been. The city is set up in a loop-shape which makes it easy to navigate. Yesterday some of us walked around and saw the cathedrals, parliament, and castles. There were gorgeous parks with statues, fountains, flowers, and lush greens. This morning a group of us went to Schonbrunn Palace. This is where the emperor and his family would go to vacation. We felt very accomplished as we navigated the subway system and found our way there. The palace was gigantic with acres of land which included a zoo. Some of us took a grand tour of the palace which allowed us to tour the entire first floor. The chandeliers alone were works of art. Included in the tour was a hand-held audio-guide so we could get the inside scoop on what happened in each room. My personal favorite was the ballroom where Mozart performed when he was six years old for a large group of people. It was a true brush with fame. Other people took carriage rides around the grounds which had perfectly-manicured trees and bushes. It was truly so magnificent.

Tomorrow we have a full day planned! We are going to do a ropes course, and then an alpine slide down the steep mountain. I can say that's something I've never done before. Then in the afternoon we will play a match versus the Croatian National Team.

I want to make sure all the boosters know how grateful we are for being able to take this trip. It's definitely an once-in-a-lifetime experience to be able to travel with so many of your good friends. We are so lucky to have all of your support. I will cherish this trip forever. I look forward to seeing everyone and sharing more stories once we get back to the states. Ciao!

May 8, 2013: On To Vienna!

After a great time in Prague, it was finally time to start making our way to Vienna. A 9 a.m. we packed up the bus and began our four hour bus ride. As for the people who enjoy scenery, this was a beautiful ride down the coast of the Czech border and a fantastic photo opportunity. We saw everything from beautiful fields to architecture that is nothing but a fantasy in the states. And as for everyone else...the ride was the perfect nap time. About three hours into the trip we made a 20 minute pit stop. Turned out we stopped at a gift shop with cool European candy and souvenirs. I bought a Milka Chocolate Bar, a popular brand in Europe. After two more hours we finally made it to our destination, beautiful Vienna, Austria.

After checking into our rooms at the Marriott we had the opportunity to tour the city just about all day. It was great to see the different styles of architecture and the awesomeness of a new European city. Most of us walked out to the Parliament building and the historical castles that line the outskirts of the main ring. We took pictures then continued our journey to a park in the center of town.

After that, a few of the girls and I stopped at a cute little Austrian restaurant for lunch. It consisted of a typical meal with potatoes and some variation of meat. Although the language barrier was tough, it was nice to completely immerse ourselves in the culture. All in all, I consider Vienna a success. A new city always brings great opportunities to experience a new way of life.

Until next time,
-Ariel Scott

May 7, 2013: Checking in from Prague!

What an incredible experience! First of all, I just want to thank all of our boosters for your outstanding generosity in making this trip possible. We know none of us would be experiencing such a one-of-a-lifetime trip without you, and from the entire team we can't thank you enough! While we wish we could spend the trip with all of you, we hope our blogs and pictures will at least give you a taste of our travels. We miss you all!

This morning we started with another nice breakfast at the hotel, complete with about 17 different types of bread and pastries, Nutella, scrambled eggs, cold cuts, and caprese salad (mozzarella, tomatoes, basil, and olive oil)—which was a little bit of a mix-up for most of us. Our whole group then headed to the Charles Bridge, which is a very famous landmark for the Czech Republic, and connects the "Old Town" to the "New Town" of Prague. The view and the bridge itself were absolutely beautiful. Thankfully we were there early enough in the day that it wasn't too crowded, and we could meander about and check out all the statues as we pleased. Once we crossed the bridge, our tour guide took us to see the Old Town Square. There was a really neat Astronomical Clock there, which depicts the "Walk of the Apostles." We were told it is a very popular pickpocketing site, since at every hour all the tourists are focused on the moving figurines instead of their purses and wallets. Thankfully we made it without any incident!

We had a couple hours on our own after our tour of Old Town Square—some of us went shopping in the little shops, and some found other cool sites to see and take model-esque pictures in front of. :) I have to say I think my favorite part of the city was the cobblestone streets and roads everywhere. But we couldn't decide how in the world they could possibly plow for snow!

Later in the afternoon the team took the tram to the gym to warm up for our second match against the Praha Seniors. We traded games the whole match but ended up losing 15-13 in the fifth. It definitely wasn't the way we wanted to start the trip but it showed that we can't take the level of play here any less serious than the Big Ten, and we all need to step it up for our next matches.

After the match we all headed to the same restaurant from the first night for a traditional Czech meal. It started with a beef and potato stew, which was delicious and quite the crowd-pleaser. The main course was a really common Czech dish—goulash with dumplings. After we were all stuffed to the max, the dessert was three mini pancake-type cakes with a blueberry sauce. Carp informed us that blueberry pancakes are her favorite so needless to say she was in Heaven, and we all left with purple tongues.

Overall, another awesome day on an amazing trip. Again, thank you to all the boosters for your incredible support in making this all possible!

-Maggie Harding

Known as the "City of a Thousand Spires" Prague has seen it all. Centuries of kings, classical composers, invading Nazis and Soviet tanks and now the Penn State women's volleyball team have all passed over Prague's cobblestones.

So on our stay, we saw the many Baroque churches, the royal palace, flagstone courtyards all in which lay within Prague's castle. In fact, this castle is the largest castle area in the world composing of 18 acres. All of the architecture and artwork is incredible and covered in detail. However nothing was quite like viewing Prague's romantic skyline, and view from on top of the hill (where the Castle sits) to the city below.

Of course, important to talk about is the food. It scarcely matters which place you select expect menus with staples of tender, seasoned pork, mildly sweet cabbage and soft dumplings to soak up the rich sauce. Desert favorites include crepes or dumplings filled with fruit.

As for the fun facts:

Did you know...

That Prague is known for being having some of the biggest beer drinkers? -Czech's drink more beer per capita than other country in the world and each head will sink about 43 gallons a year- dang!

During the Middle Ages turning minerals into gold was a hugely popular fashion among the elite. - The mark of ones status was magician- oooo ahhhhh!

Writers and academics have claimed to have felt strange and disturbing tremors coming from under the ground. - Dark alleys and desolate squares have been known to produce many eerie sounds.... Can you say ghosts??

And the first ever sugar cubes were made in 1841- yummi!

On behalf of the team, we would like to thank you boosters for sending us on the trip of a lifetime. We promise to work harder on the court to represent Penn State well and make you all proud.

May 5, 2013

Today was our first traveling day. The day started in an uproar as we scrambled around the locker room at 10 a.m. Just about all of us had over-packed and were struggling to get our bags under 50 pounds. Despite the hectic start we were all extremely excited. By 11 a.m., we were settled on the bus accompanied by boosters headed to Philly. The three-hour ride was very chill. We spent the time snacking, napping, jamming to music and talking about our hopes for Europe.

In Philly we headed to the gate boarding for Atlanta. As soon as we checked in we rushed to the food court. We ate giant ice cream cones but could only think about how much better the gelato in Europe was going to taste. We were loaded with no problem and within two hours the girls and I were in the Peach State. After waiting about an hour, we were boarding our flight to Amsterdam, making our trip officially international.

The plane was huge with three giant compartments and six stewardesses all dressed in bright blue. Each of their accents stuck out as they said hello to us as we boarded. All different types of languages were being spoken on the plane. Even the announcements came on in four different tongues. When we took off it was rainy and the skies were rough so the ride was bumpy. But even Lacey, who is not fond of flying, still made it through.

Eight hours and two airplane meals later the group was getting their passports stamped. I was amazed by the size of the airport, AMS being one of the biggest hubs in all of Europe. There were all kinds of shops, from Gucci to cigar shops. Because of a previous delay we didn't have much time to explore before starting the final leg of our trip.

As the crew got on our final plane to Prague we were all pooped. Flying above the countryside was breathtaking. The view of rolling hills and clusters of small towns was almost like flying over Happy Valley. The small jet got us to the Czech in two hours flat.

Even though the time spent getting to Prague was just the beginning of the trip it was also a time of bonding and memory making.
